

Will of Arthur Smith.

No. 325

In the name of God, I Arthur Smith, of the Borough Swarthmore, in the County of Delaware and State of Pennsylvania of the age of thirty years and upward, and being of sound, disposing mind and memory, do hereby make public and declare this to be my last will and testament, that is to say,

First. I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid and fully satisfied.
Second. I give and devise the real property now occupied by me as my present residence, and all residue of every name and nature, and wherever situated, unto my beloved wife, Roseanna Smith, absolutely and forever. I appoint her my executrix of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this Jan. 15, 1915 day of

Witnesses (real)
John E. Jones.

Arthur Smith.

This above instrument, consisting of one sheet was, at the date thereof, subscribed by Arthur Smith, the testator named in the foregoing will, in the presence of us and each of us, and, at the time of making such subscription the above instrument was declared by the said testator to be his last will and testament and each of us, at the request of said testator and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, signed our names as witnesses thereto, at the end of this will.

Letters Testamentary.

 By the tenor of these presents, I This. F. Kueger, Jr., Registrar for the Probate of Wills and Granting Letters of Administration in and for said County, unto all men send Greetings.

Whereas Arthur Smith late of the Borough of Swarthmore in the said County, deceased, had while he lived and at the time of his death, diverse goods and chattels, rights and credits in sundry places within the said County, by reason whereof, and by laws and customs of the said Commonwealth, the approbation and intimation of the last will and testament of the said Arthur Smith and the commission of Administration of all and singular his goods and chattels, rights and credits, and also auditing the accounts, calculations and reckonings of the said Administration, and the final discharge and dismission thereof unto the Registrar aforesaid do belong.

Now Know ye, that on the third day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifteen at media, in the County aforesaid, before me the Registrar aforesaid, duly appointed, commissioned and constituted, was proved, appeared and introduced, the last will and testament of the said Arthur Smith deceased, a true copy whereof is to these presents annexed, and the administration of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the said deceased, by his last will and testament in any way or manner affected, was granted unto Roseanna Smith.

Executrix in the said testament named and appointed she having been justly duly affirmed will and truly to administer the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the said deceased, according to law, and also diligently and faithfully to regard, as well and truly to comply with provisions of the law relating to collateral inheritances.

In Testimony whereof, I have caused the seal of the Registrar's Office to be hereunto affixed, at media, the third day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (1915).
