Dear Marie, Reba and Minnie,

Owing to the uncertainty of life, I am going to make a statement concerning the disposition of my property. I leave all of my earthly possessions to you, my three daughters, to be equally divided among you.

I wish you, Marie to sell the property and settle the estate when in your judgment it is best, dividing equally with your sisters.

This is done with the full consent of your Father and Brothers.

Hoping this will prove satisfactory to all concerned, as ever

Yours Lovingly

(Margaret Flowden) Mother
