No. 171
 Catherine Ann Maxwell, of the said County of Brunswick being of sound & disposing mind & memory, do make, publish and declare this to be my last Will & Testament, that is to say: after all my just debts are paid, the residue of my Estate of all kinds, real, personal & mixed whereunto the same may be, I give, devise & bequeath to my beloved husband Robert Maxwell - for & during the term of his natural life, and after his death I give & devise the said estate to Robert Henry S. Montgomery, to him, his heirs, executors and administrators, subject to the charge, however, upon the same of the sum of five hundred Dollars to be paid to Eliza N. Smith by the said Robert Henry S. Montgomery, when the said Eliza shall attain the age of twenty one years, or marries - and this sum of five hundred Dollars is made a special and specific charge upon the estate hereby given to the said Robert Henry S. Montgomery. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint the said Robert Henry S. Montgomery, Executor to this my last will and testament. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 4th day of February, Anno Domini, 1884.

Signed, sealed, published & declared by Catherine Ann Maxwell, as and for her last will & testament in the presence of us, who at her request, and in her presence, have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

State of North Carolina - County of Brunswick -
 A paper writing purporting to be the last Will & Testament of Catherine Ann Maxwell, late of the County of Brunswick, deceased is exhibited for probate in open Court by Robert Henry S. Montgomery, the Executor therein named and the due execution thereof by the said Catherine Ann Maxwell is proved by the oath & examination of J. D. Butler & Thos. J. Butler the subscribing witnesses thereto. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing & every part thereof is the last will & testament of the said Catherine Ann Maxwell and the same is ordered to be recorded & filed - and that upon the said Robert Henry S. Montgomery Executor as aforesaid only good faith is used by taking the oath required by law, this 29th March 1884.
