

Lastly

I give devise and bequeath to my mother Susan Daniels.

I hereby appoint my said mother Susan Daniels Executrix to this my last Will and Testament.

Witness my hand and seal this 26th day of October A. D. 1859.

Joseph Davis (Seal)

The foregoing signed, sealed, published and declared by the testator Joseph Davis to be his last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who in his presence and in the presence of each other have at his request hereunto set our names as subscribing witnesses.

Alfred Chamblain.

Saml. Langdon.

State Of North Carolina

Brunswick County

Oct 3rd 1868.

The foregoing paper-writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Joseph Davis deceased is exhibited in open Court by Mrs Susan Davis the executrix named therein and it is therefore proved by the oath and examination of L. H. Galloway and Frank Myers that Samuel Langdon one of the subscribing witnesses thereto is dead and it is also proved by the oath and examination of the said Galloway and Myers that Alfred Chamblain the only other subscribing witness thereto has removed to another state - It is further proved by the oath and examination of the said Galloway and Myers that they are well acquainted with the hand writing of the said Sam Langdon and Alfred Chamblain witnesses, as well as of the said testator Joseph Davis and that the signatures affixed to the foregoing are the hand writing of said witnesses and said testator and it is further proved that at the date of execution of the said Will, said testator was of sound and disposing mind and memory.

It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper-writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of the said Joseph Davis and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed - and therefore the said Susan Davis executrix as aforesaid, duly qualifies as such by taking the oath required by law. — Th. G. Curtis.

No. 255
