A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of James Reeves died, is this day exhibited before me the undersigned Clerk of the Supr. Court of the County aforesaid, by Preston Green the administrator therein appointed and the due execution thereof by the said Jas Reeves is duly proved by the oath and examination of J. C. Dalbow and Armin Green the subscribing witnesses thereto who being duly sworn depose and say each for himself, that they and the subscribing witnesses to the paper writing now shown them purporting to be the last will and testament of Jas Reeves died as aforesaid that the said Jas Reeves in the presence of these deponents, subscribed his name or made his mark and the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid and which bears date the 19th day of May A.D. 1890. And the deponents further say that the said Jas Reeves, Testator, as aforesaid died at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and executed to be his last will and testament, and the deponents did thereupon subscribe their names at the end of said will as attesting witnesses thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said Testator.

And these deponents further say that at the time when said Testator subscribed his name to the said last will and testament as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponents subscribing their names as attesting witnesses thereto the said James Reeves was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of these deponents, and further these deponents say not.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 10th day of June 1890
