

No. 472
STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
COUNTY OF BRUNSWICK

I, A. V. Gray, of the aforesaid state and county, being of sound mind and considering the uncertainty of life and desiring to fulfill the wishes of my deceased husband, in the division of our homestead and lands, do declare this to be my last will and testament, to-wit:

FIRST- My homestead place lying on the south side of the Old South road, together with two acres, more or less, lying on the north side of said road, I give to my son Lee Gray.

SECOND- My tract or lot of land, (part of my father John H. White's Estate) adjoining the lands of U. G. White Estate and Mary A. Milliken Estate, I wish to be divided between my six daughters, those getting front lots on the highway to pay enough to put the ones getting back lots on equal value with the front lots.

THIRD- The tract of land known as the Cumbee tract, (being also a part of my father's estate) I wish divided between my sons Ben and Willie Gray and my grandchildren, Almond and Daisy Lee Gray, (Harry's children). Ben and Willie getting their interest on the Boones Neck road, and Daisy Lee and Almond the rest of said tract.

This January 2nd, 1936.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA | S.S. IN THE SUPERIOR COURT
BRUNSWICK COUNTY

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of A. V. Gray, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by J. B. Gray, one of the dividers, named therein and the due execution thereof by the said A. V. Gray by the oath and examination of Maud Gray and W. R. Holmes, the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn, do depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of A. V. Gray; that the said A. V. Gray, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 2nd day of January, 1936.

AND THIS DEPONENT FURTHER SAITH, That the said A. V. Gray the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing her name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said A. V. Gray was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 8th day of May, 1936, before me.

M. B. Watkins
Assistant Clerk Superior Court.

No. 473
STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

I, Charles W. Mulford, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

FIRST: My executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

SECOND: I give and devise to Charles W. Harvell, all of my real property that I may now possess, or may hereafter acquire, in fee simple.

THIRD: I give and bequeath to Charles W. Harvell all of my personal property that I may own or may hereafter acquire.

FOURTH: I am making this devise and bequest to the said Charles W. Harvell for his faithful and constant attendant to me during my illness and my remaining days.

FIFTH: I hereby constitute and appoint Charles W. Harvell my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof-herby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

SIXTH: It is my further desire that my executor herein named shall serve without bond.

In witness whereof, I, the said Charles W. Mulford, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 18 day of May, 1936.

Charles W. Mulford (SEAL)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Charles W. Mulford to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT, BEFORE THE CLERK

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Charles W. Mulford, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by Charles W. Harvell the executor---therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Charles W. Mulford is proved by the oath and examination of J. H. Kennedy and Joseph B. Stanley the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, do depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Charles W. Mulford; that the said Charles W. Mulford, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 18th day of May, 1936.

And the deponent further saith that the said Charles W. Mulford the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Charles W. Mulford was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 22nd day of May, 1936, before me.
