No. 585

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

BRUNSWICK COUNTY.

ss. IN THE SUPERIOR COURT, BEFORE THE CLERK.

A paper-writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Clare Nash Galloway, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by Charles L. Nash the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Clare Nash Galloway is proved by the oath and examination of Mrs. Orville Willis and Miss Elizabeth Nash RN, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn do depose and say, and each for herself depose and saith, that she is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown her, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Clare Nash Galloway; that the said Clare Nash Galloway, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 29 day of January, 1946

AND THE DEPONENT FURTHER SAITH, That the said Clare Nash Galloway the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe her name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing her name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Clare Nash Galloway was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these say not.

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 27 day of March 1946, before me.

Asst. Clerk Superior Court.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

BRUNSWICK COUNTY

I, Clare Nash Galloway, of the aforesaid county and state, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

FIRST: My executor hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent Christian burial, suitable to the wishes of relatives and my station in life, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first monies which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

SECOND: I give and bequeath to my beloved and faithful mother, Mrs. Bettie K. Nash, the sum of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, to keep, invest, spend or in any way enjoy as she may desire, in whole or in part, but with the provisions that in the event that any part of said sum shall remain unspent at the time of her demise, then in that event said remaining amount shall revert to, and be equally divided between, my daughter Betsy Jane and my son George Robert, subject, however, to the same terms and conditions hereinafter set out with respect to other bequest and devises to them made.

THIRD: I give and bequeath to little friend and employee, Loris English, the sum of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, as a small token of my regard and appreciation of her co-operative and loyal service.

FOURTH: I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter Betsy

Jane my diamond ring, and each and every other piece of my personal jewelry, to be delivered to her by her guardian hereinafter named when she shall have attained the age of twenty-one years.

FIFTH: I give and bequeath to my beloved son, George Robert, his father's watch, and all of his father's jewelry, to be delivered to him by his guardian hereinafter named when he shall have attained the age of twenty-one years.

SIXTH: I give and devise all of my remaining property, real, personal and mixed, of every nature, kind and description, to my said children, Betsy Jane and George Robert, share and share alike, subject, however, to the terms and conditions of the guardianship herein set out and established.

SEVENTH: It is my will and desire, in the event I have not sold and disposed of the stock of goods, fixtures and good will constituting my present merchantile business located in the City of Southport, North Carolina, before my death, that my Executor hereinafter named shall cause its continued operation as a going concern until he shall sell the same either at private or public sale, as to him seems best, at the highest available figure, and that the net proceeds from such sale be deposited in bank along with other monies now on deposit belonging to my estate, or on deposit at the time of my demise.

EIGHTH: And, whereas, my said daughter Betsy Jane, and my said son, George Robert, are both minors, and neither of them will become of full legal age for several years; Now, therefore, my will and desire is that my brother, Bushrod W. Nash, of New Hanover County, State of North Carolina, be, and he hereby is appointed and designated by me as guardian of the said Betsy Jane Galloway and George Robert Galloway, to have and to hold the custody and control of the estate of said minors until each of them shall have arrived at the age of twenty-one years, said guardian being charged with the duty of expending the corpus of said estate from time to time, when necessary, in excess of the income derived from said estate, for the proper support, maintenance and preservation of the health and welfare of said minors, thereafter paying to each of said minors one-half of the then residue of said estate upon said minor reaching the age of twenty-one years.

NINTH: I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved brother Charles L Nash my Executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof - hereby revoking and declaring utterly void and of no effect all other wills and testaments by me hereto made.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, the said Claire Nash Galloway, do heretunto set my hand and seal, this 29 day of January, 1946.

Claire Nash Galloway (SEAL)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Claire Nash Galloway to be her last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at her request and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF J. H. BENNETT.

I, J. H. Bennett, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament.

FIRST: My executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

SECOND: I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved son, Lacy Bennett, all of my property, both real and personal, of whatsoever nature, wheresoever situate, of which I may die seized and possessed, but upon the condition, however, that he, the said Lacy Bennett, shall support my beloved wife, Josie Bennett, during her natural life out of the proceeds of my estate.

THIRD: I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved son, Lacy Bennett, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part or clause thereof - hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, the said J. H. Bennett, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 18th day of September, 1937.

J. H. Bennett SEAL

Signed, sealed, published and declared by J. H. Bennett to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence, do subscribe our hands as witnesses thereto.
