

writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Jesse Davis; that the said Jesse Davis, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 27th day of January, 1930

And the deponent further saith that the said Jesse Davis the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed and exhibited, to be the last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe her name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing her name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Jesse Davis was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

Your deponent further avers that the said Joe Kinston, one of the subscribing witnesses is now dead, and affiant witnessed his signature to said will, as per attached affidavit.

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 23 day of October, 1945, before me

I, Clarence Deming Sedberry of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament.

- 1: My executor hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into her hands belonging to my said estate.
- 2: I give and devise to my beloved wife Fannie Body Sedberry all my property real, personal and mixed, of any and every nature wheresoever situate or which may come to me by inheritance or otherwise at any future time.
- 3: I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife Fannie Body Sedberry, my lawful executrix to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof; and it is my desire that she be permitted to serve without bond and make no reports other than those required by law, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other will and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said Clarence Deming Sedberry, have hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 20th day of June 1921.

C. D. Sedberry (SEAL)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Clarence Deming Sedberry to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

H. M. McKethan, Fayetteville, N. C.

Perry J. Melvin, Fayetteville, N. C.

This is to certify that the foregoing probates and will of Clarence Deming Sedberry is taken from the records of Cumberland County in the Office of the Clerk of Superior Court, and are true copies thereof. This 8th day of January, 1935.
