

State of North Carolina.
County of Brunswick.

I, J.W. Gay of the County of Brunswick and State of North Carolina, do hereby make this Codicil to my annexed Will changing the executor named in said Will, and name, constitute and appoint my good friend Geo. H. Bellamy in place of Jas. H. Scull, and declare this as my last will and testament.

Witness my hand and seal this 28th day of September A.D. 1911.

J.W. Gay (Seal)

Witness.

We the undersigned, do hereby certify that we saw J.W. Gay sign the above Codicil to his Will, and we further certify that we signed it at his request and in his presence & in the presence of each other. And we further certify that J.W. Gay is of sound mind and of full age to execute the above instrument. In witness whereof we hereunto affix our hands and seal this 28th day of September A.D. 1911.

John White (Seal)
J.W. Skipper (Seal)

North Carolina
Brunswick Co.

In the Superior Court.
It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper-writing and my last thereof is the last Will and Testament of J.W. Gay deceased. Let the said Will together with the probate, be recorded and filed.
This 21st day of Nov. 1912.

R.D. Newton
Clerk Superior Court

(See Page 446)

(See Page 448)

State of North Carolina, In the Superior Court.
Brunswick County

a paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Clemmons deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of Superior Court for said County by C.E. Taylor the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Elizabeth Clemmons by the oath and examination of J. Berg, J.G. B. Puckett the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, both depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Clemmons that the said — in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 14th day of March 1904.

And the deponent further saith that the said Elizabeth Clemmons the testator or afore said, did at the same time of subscribing her name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe her name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator and this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time or the date aforesaid her name as an attesting Witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Elizabeth Clemmons was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; and further her deponents say not.

J. Berg
J. B. Rusak.

Severally read and subscribed, this 7th day of Nov 1914 before me
P. S. Newton

Clerk Superior Court

North Carolina / On the Superior Court Brunswick

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Clemmons deceased, Let the said Will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This 7th day of Nov, 1914.

P. S. Newton

Clerk Superior Court

State of North Carolina.

County of Brunswick, S. Elizabeth Clemmons, of the aforesaid state and County, being of sound mind and disposing memory, considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do, make, publish and declare this my ~~so~~ last will and testament.

Item 1. I direct that my executor hereinafter named shall provide my body a suited Christian burial, pay all my funeral expenses, together with all my just debts out of the first money that shall come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Item 2. In order to pay said charges and expenses, and to provide a fund for the bequest hereinafter named to the Church, I bequeath all my personal property, not hereinafter specially bequeathed, to my said executor hereinafter named, with the direction that he shall the same as soon after my death as he may deem convenient and proper, in bulk or by parcel at his election, and either at public or private sale at his election, for cash, and pay all my debts, my funeral expenses, and the necessary charges for carrying out the terms of this will, and it is the intent that the sum so realized be paid in full satisfy by my executor, that I direct that my house and lot on Moore Street, in the city of Southport, conveyed to me by my first husband John W. Woodside, be rented by my executor until the net rent money be sufficient to fully pay such debts and charges.

Item 3. I bequeath any surplus funds that may be in my executor's hands after paying my debts, funeral expenses and charges of executing this will, which may come to his hands from the sale of my personal property as directed in item 2, to the Southport Baptist Church of which I am a member.

Item 4. I devise and bequeath to my loved granddaughter Amie May Woodside, subject to the conditions in Item 2. Here in my house and lot in the city of Southport on the north side of Moore Street, conveyed to me by my first husband John W. Woodside. And in the event that my personal estate shall not be sufficient to pay my debts and charges as stated in Item 2, then before the said house shall be rented as directed in Item 2, to raise a sum sufficient to discharge the same. It is my will that my said granddaughter shall have the refusal of paying the surplus indebtedness and take the house freed and clear of such charge.

Item 5. I bequeath to my said granddaughter, Amie May Woodside, each and every article of personal property belonging to me that at the time of my death shall be located in the front room, up-stairs on the west side of the house, it being the south-west corner room, also my trunk and its contents, also all the pictures in the parlor, also the old Woodside table with the old leaves, square legs, a round table, also the old Woodside dining chair. Also the marble top table in the parlor.

also the old picture of the Lord's Prayer in pen work, all of which is to be here absolute and free and clear of all charges. The side board and sofa is the property of my husband, J. Hardy Clemmons. Item 6. I bequeath to my husband, J. Hardy Clemmons, each and every article of personal property that belongs to me, not heretofore specially bequeathed, that at the time of my death shall be placed in my bed room used by my said husband and myself, it to be his absolute and free of any charge.

Item 7. All the remainder or residue of my property, real and personal, to which I may be entitled or own, I here by devise and bequeath to my said granddaughter, Amie May Woodside. Item 8. I nominate and hereby constitute my trusted friend, Charles Edward Taylor, my lawful executor for all intents and purposes to execute the terms of this will according to the intents and purposes thereof and every part thereof.

It witness whereof, I, the said Elizabeth Clemmons, do hereto subscribe my hand and affix my seal, this 14th day of March A. D. 1910.

Elizabeth Clemmons
Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Elizabeth Clemmons to her last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at her request, are in her presence, and in the presence of each other, do hereto subscribe our names as witnesses hereto.
J. B. B. B. B.

North Carolina
Columbus County

In the matter of will of Albert Muller, deceased

In the Superior Court, before
J. W. Stanley, Clerk Order suspending Proceedings. under seal.

To Henry Besternity, executor to the will of Albert Muller, deceased:

I Camilla Besternity, one of the legales in the will of Albert Muller, deceased;
You are hereby notified that Erna Gerhard, Ida Mueller, Alvin Mueller, William Ernsth and wife Clara Ernsth, Albert Muller, Carl Diehl, and wife Hilda Diehl, heirs at law to the said Albert Muller, deceased, having entered a caveat to the probate of the paper-writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Albert Muller deceased, and having filed the bond required by law, and the case having been transferred to the Superior Court of Columbus County for trial at term, you as personal representative of the said Albert Muller, deceased, having the estate in charge, are hereby ordered to suspend all further proceedings in relation to the said estate, except the preservation of the property and the collection of debts, until a decision of the issue is had.

J. W. Stanley
Clerk Superior Court, Columbus County

North Carolina
Columbus County

I J. M. Memory, Deputy Clerk Superior Court, of a former State and County, do hereby certify that the annexed one O sheet is a true copy of order suspending Proceedings under seal in the case of Albert Muller vs. Henry Besternity as appears of Record in the office of Clerk Superior Court of Columbus County.
Witness my hand and official seal this the 9th day of Dec. 1915

J. M. Memory
Deputy Clerk Superior Court.

