State of North Carolina,
Brunswick County.

I, Amanda J. Rabon, of the aforesaid county and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First. My executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts (if there be any) out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second. I give and devise to Mrs. Ethel Emma Hewett, wife of A. C. Hewett, all my personal property, consisting of the following items: One bedstead, one feather bed and three mattresses, three pillars, one bolster, ten quilts, four chairs, one kitchen safe, one wash pot, capacity, about two bushels, and all my kitchen and cooking utensils consisting of dishes, pans, etc., together with all and everything I have belonging to me at my death. Also, two acres of land lying on the North side sherrwo swamp, and being my former home place. I, give and devise the sum of $1.00 to Gertie Hewett, the wife of I. E. Hewett, she being my daughter.

Third. I hereby constitute and appoint my trusty friend, Covington Hewett, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I the said Amanda J. Rabon, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 25th day of February 1935.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Amanda J. Rabon, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by Covington Hewett the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Amanda J. Rabon is proved by the oath and examination of L. H. Phelps and Rubie H. McCall the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, do depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Amanda J. Rabon; that the said Amanda J. Rabon, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 25th day of February, 1935.

And the deponent further saith that the said Amanda J. Rabon as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited, to be her last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Amanda J. Rabon was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was under no restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

I, Frederick B. Bond, of the Village of Burdett, in the County of Schuler and State of New York, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this my last Will and Testament, in manner following that is to say:

FIRST. I direct the payment of all my just debts and my funeral expenses.

SECOND. All the rest, residue and remainder of my property of every name, nature and kind and wheresoever situate, I give, devise and bequeath as follows: Unto my wife, LELIA M. BOND, I give, devise and bequeath the use, income and profit thereof for and during the term of her natural life, or as long as she remains my widow. And in case the use, rents, income and profits shall not be sufficient for her comfortable support and maintenance, I will and direct that she may use of the principal of my estate so much as her needs and necessities may require for the comfortable maintenance and support of herself, taking into consideration her station in life.

THIRD. At the death of my said wife, or her remarriage, I direct my executor hereinafter named to convert the residuum of my estate into cash, and from the avails thereof that he purchase an annuity in some standard insurance company, such as The Equitable Life Insurance Company of New York, or some other Company of equal responsibility, the annuity to be paid to my daughter, Dorothy Bond, personally, and monthly during the term of her natural life.

FOURTH: In the event that my wife and myself should die at, or at about the same time, as a result of accident, common disaster or from any cause whatsoever, that is, before having come into possession of my estate under the terms of this will, then it is my will and I direct my said executor to convert into cash my entire estate and to so purchase an annuity payable to my said daughter, Dorothy, as hereinbefore provided.

FIFTH: For the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this will, I hereby authorize and empower my executor hereinafter named to sell and convey any and all real property of which I shall die seized, or entitled to dispose of at my death, and to make execute and deliver any and all necessary writings necessary to convey the same, as fully to all intents and purposes as I might or could do if living.

LASTLY I hereby appoint Lelia M. Bond, my wife, executrix during her lifetime, and at her death Donald Haman executor of this, my last Will and Testament: hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF. I have hereunto subscribed my name the day of September in the year Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-six.

Frederick B. Bond

We, whose names are hereto subscribed, TO CERTIFY that on the day of September, 1936, Frederick B. Bond, the testator above named, subscribed his name to this instrument in our presence and in the presence of each of us, and at the same time, in our presence and hearing, declared the same to be his last WILL AND TESTAMENT, and requested us and each of us, to sign our names thereto as witnesses to the execution thereof, which we hereby do in the presence of the testator and of each other, on the day of the date of the said Will, and write opposite our names our respective places of residence.
