In re. will of G.W. Gauey } Affidavit.

Personally appeared before me E.O. Rabon, who being duly sworn, deposes and says: That on Sept. 11, 1912, G.W. Gauey requested him to draw up his will and instructed him of the contents that he desired in the will, that said affiant drew the will as directed, putting the body of the same in writing on paper consisting of three sheets, which he securely pinned and fastened together, making the complete instrument, which is the same exhibited before him this day, as the will of G.W. Gauey executed Sept. 12, 1912, that G.W. Gauey and his son drove up to the house and called for the will on Sept. 12, 1912, that I took the prepared will out in my hands and read it over to Mr. Gauey, that the instrument was then completed, ready to be signed and witnessed;

That after reading over the will to Mr. Gauey that the said G.W. Gauey declared in the presence of my wife, Emma Rabon, and J.T. Gauey, son of G.W. Gauey, that it was just what he wanted that the instrument shown me today consisting of three sheets of writing are the three identical sheets that was securely pinned together and fastened by me and which was there and then signed and executed by G.W. Gauey and witnessed by Emma Rabon, my wife, and myself;

Affiant further says that he has carefully examined the paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of G.W. Gauey, shown to him this day, dated Sept. 12, 1912, that the said document being written on three pieces of paper are today attached, making one complete continuous document and is the same three pieces of manuscript that he himself pinned together and fastened securely prior to the time of the executing of the same by the said G.W. Gauey, and that it appears to be intact, fully exactly as it was on the day the same was executed.

E.O. Rabon
Affiant.
