

Knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death I herewith make this my last will and Testament.

I will that all that is left of what I now have at my death, both real and personal, be divided equally, share and share alike, between my brothers Crawford and Samuel Watts.

I also will that no one else beside myself, be buried on my Cemetery lot, after my own death.

I was under my hand and seal this 31st day of January, A. D. 1919.
