A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Flora Hawkins, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Lucy Brown, the executrix thereof in mention, and the due execution thereof by the said Flora Hawkins by the oath and examination of John W. Galloway, Esq. the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, each depose and say, and each for him self depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Flora Hawkins, that the said Flora Hawkins in the presence of this deponent subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown him as afore said, and which bears date of the 29th day of January 1900.

And the deponent further further saith that the said Flora Hawkins, the testatrix afore said, did at the time of subscribing her name as afore said declare the said paper-writing so subscribed by her, and exhibited to her last Will and Testament, and the deponent did there upon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said Testatrix.

And this deponent further saith, that at the time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as afore said, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as afore said, the said Flora Hawkins was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge of this deponent. I give further these deponents say not.

Sincerely sworn and submitted

This 22nd day of August, 1900.

North Carolina } Thomas L. Jones, Clerk Superior Court
Brunswick County } ss In the Superior Court.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper-writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of Flora Hawkins, deceased. Let the said Will together with the probate, be pronounced and filed. Thomas L. Jones

State of North Carolina }
Brunswick County

I, Flora Hawkins, of the afore said County and State, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament.

1st I give and bequeath to Lucy Brown my sister my House hold and kitchen furniture -

2nd The place where I now live, I give to my Grand Children; Hattie Smith, Sadie Smith, Cathelina Smith, and Pink Smith. The place to be the home of these children as long as they are single and wish to live together on until the youngest one Cathelina Smith arrives at the age of 21 years; at which time the place to be advertised and sold for cash or its equivalent and the proceeds equally divided among the surviving children - Should the youngest child not live to be twenty one, at its death, the other children the youngest one of them having reached twenty one (21) years, can sell the place if they desire to do so, and divide the proceeds equally between them, share and share alike or should the children all die before the place can be divided under the provisions of this Will. The place then becomes the property of my sister Lucy Brown of New Hanover County. In witness whereof I here by declare this to be my last Will and Testament.

I here by constitute and appoint my trusty friend Lucy Brown (my sister) above mentioned my lawful Executor or Executrix to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and Testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part Clause thereof. In witness whereof I the said Flora Hawkins, do hereunto set my hand and seal this the 29th day of January A.D. 1900.

Flora Hawkins (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Flora Hawkins to be her last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who, at request and in her presence do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.
