A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Frank Doshier deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Miss Kate Street and the due execution thereof by the said Frank Doshier by the oath and examination of E. H. Cranmer & Abram Gibbs the subscribing witnesses thereto; who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Frank Doshier and that the said Frank Doshier in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 9th day of August 1898. And the deponent further saith, That the said Frank Doshier the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the paper-writing to be subscribed by him, and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Frank Doshier was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.

E. H. Cranmer.
Abram Gibbs.
