

the foregoing two pages to be a true and correct of the will of Thomas L. Vines, late of said New County, and who died resident in said New Han County, as the same is taken from and compared with the original on file in this office, which inel will was admitted to probate in this Court on the 7th day of November, 1918, which will recorded in the book of wills in this said office which book is No. 1, and recorded at page 2, etc.

In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and affix the seal of the Court at Office Wilmington, N.C., this 12th day of February 1920.

W. N. Harris,
 Clerk Superior Court

State of North Carolina,
 County of Brunswick.

This witnesseth, that I, Frank Prentice Crockett, of the aforesaid state and County, being of sound mind and disposing memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament:

First. I give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved daughter, Esther Marie Crockett, all my property of every kind and description, real, personal and mixed, wherever the same may be located, to her and her heirs forever and absolutely.

Second. I hereby nominate and appoint my said daughter, Esther Marie Crockett, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said Frank Prentice Crockett, do hereto set my hand and seal this the 4th day of September, A.D. 1913.

Frank Prentice Crockett (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Frank Prentice Crockett to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who,
 at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto

 Price Turpless,
 C. Ed. Taylor.

No. 335

State of North Carolina,
 Brunswick County.

In the Superior Court, A paper writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of Frank Prentice Crockett, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Esther Marie Crockett, the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Frank Prentice Crockett by the oath and examination of Price Turpless and C. Ed. Taylor, two of the Subscribers to the same, who being duly sworn, depose and and say, and each for himself deposeeth and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Frank Prentice Crockett; that the said Frank Prentice Crockett, in the presence of these deponents, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 4th day of September, 1913.

And this deponent further saith that the said Frank Prentice Crockett, the testator aforesaid, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponents subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto as aforesaid, the said Frank Prentice Crockett was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say, not.

Severally sworn and subscribed, this the 9th day of March, 1920, before me.

A. J. McKeithan,

North Carolina } In the Superior Court
Brunswick County }

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and a part thereof is the last will and testament of Frank Prentice Crockett, deceased. Let said will together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This 9th day of March, 1920.

A. J. McKeithan,

Clerk Superior Court

Brunswick County. }

Know all men by these presents, that we, Esther Marie Crockett, E. B. Stevens and E. G. Taylor are held and firmly bound unto the State of North Carolina in the sum of Three Thousand, Two Hundred Dollars, to the payment whereof we bind ourselves and each of us, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

Signed, sealed, this 9th day of March, 1920.

The condition of this obligation is such, that if the above bounden Esther Marie Crockett, the executrix of Frank Prentice Crockett, deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory and account of sales of all the real estate, and all the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come to her possession or knowledge, or to the possession of any other person for her, and the same do exhibit into the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of said County within ninety days after the date of these presents, and do well and truly execute according to law, all the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the deceased, and the proceeds of his real estate that may be sold for the payment of his debts, which shall, at any time, come into her possession or to the possession of any other person for her; and further do make a true and just account of her within two years after the date of these presents, and all the rest and residue of the said proceeds of real estate, goods, chattels and credits which shall be found remaining upon her account (the same being first examined and allowed by the Clerk of the Superior Court), shall deliver and pay to any person as the same shall be due unto, pursuant to last will and testament made by the deceased, and faithfully execute the trust reposed in her as such, and obey all lawful orders of the Clerk of the Superior or other Court, touching the estate committed to her, then this obligation to be void and of no effect.
