1. FIRST: I desire that my body may be decently buried, without needless expense.

2. SECOND: I direct that all my just debts be paid as soon after my decease as conveniently may be, and to that and charge my whole estate, real and personal, with the same.

3. THIRD: After the payment of all debts chargeable against my estate, burial expenses, costs of administration and taxes, I bequeath to my wife, E. C. Vincent, one third of the proceeds of the sale of all my personal estate, to be her own absolutely, and I also devise and bequeath to my wife, E. C. Vincent, a one third interest in such real estate as I may own at the time of my death, wheresoever located for and during the term of her natural life, subject to the rights granted to my hereinafter named Executors and Trustees to manage and sell the same. I herein declare that my said wife, E. C. Vincent, already owns all furniture, household goods, chinaware household linens, books paintings and utensils of every sort, contained in our home, located on Main Street, in the Town of Emporia, Virginia, but in order to avoid any misunderstanding, I hereby bequeath to her any right I may have in such furniture household goods, chinaware, household linens, books paintings and utensils of every sort, together with provisions and supplies of every kind contained in our said home. I also bequeath to her any automobiles I may own at the time of my death.

Vincent, Jr., Louise Dalton and Eugenia Atkinson, in the way of college education or otherwise, at least the sum of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($5000.00), I direct that each of the said four children be charged with the sum of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($5000.00), as an advancement.
