No. 331

North Carolina.

Brunswick County.

I, George D. Walker, of the County of Brunswick, State of North Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make, ordain, declare and publish this my last Will and Testament, thereby revoking and declaring null and void any other will, or wills heretofore made by me.

1- My Executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my family and friends, and pay all my just debts and funeral expenses out of the first moneys coming into his hands belonging to my estate.

2- I give, devise and bequeath to Margaret Dasher, daughter of Frederick and Lula Dasher, all my property, both real and personal, to do with as she pleases.

3- I nominate, constitute and appoint Frederick Dasher my sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament, and each and every part thereof.

In Testimony Whereof, I hereunto set my hand, and affix my seal, this the ninth (9th) day of June, A. D. 1916.

George D. Walker (Seal)

Signed, sealed, declared and published by the said George D. Walker to be his last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who at his request, and in his presence, and in the presence of each other do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of George D. Walker, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by Frederick Doshier, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Frederick Doshier by the oath and examination of A. K. Goldfinch and C. H. Cranmer, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, do depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of George D. Walker; that the said George D. Walker, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 9th day of June, 1916.

And this Deponent further saith, that the said George D. Walker the testator aforesaid, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said George D. Walker was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 12th day of April, 1919, before me.
