

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
COUNTY OF BRUNSWICK

IN THE NAME OF GOD AMEN, AMEN:

I Re: Goodman of the aforesaid County and State being sound of mind, but considering the uncertainty of his earthly existence do make and declare his last will and testament and revoking all other wills made by him.

First: I appoint my friend, Sylvesta Wortham, my executor who shall give my body a decent burial to the wishes of my friends and relations and pay all my funeral expenses and all my just debts out of my first money that comes into his hands belonging to his estate.

Second: I will to my Beloved wife, Maude Goodman, all of my real estate consisting of my home where we are now living, one lot on Lord Street, next to the Colored Baptist Church, also all of my household and kitchen furniture and one automobile. In witness whereof, the said Rev. C. Goodman sets his hand and seal this the 27th day of November, 1945.

A paper-writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Rev. C. Goodman, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by Sylvester Wortham the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Rev. C. Goodman is proved by the oath and examination of G. W. Clarida and Calvin Galloway, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn do depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Rev. C. Goodman; that the said Rev. C. Goodman, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 31 day of January, 1946.

AND THE DEPONENT FURTHER SAITH, That the said Rev. C. Goodman the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Rev. C. Goodman was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; And further these deponents say not.

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 31 day of January, 1946, before me.

IN THE MATTER OF THE WILL OF

GEORGE H. MARLOW, DECEASED

A paper-writing hereto attached and purporting to be the last will and testament of George H. Marlow, deceased, bearing date of the 1st day of October, 1937, is exhibited before the undersigned clerk of the Superior Court of Brunswick County, North Carolina, by Minnie G. Marlow, the executor therein named, and thereupon the following proof is taken by the oath and examination of S. T. Bennett that Susie Mae Livingston, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, is dead, and it is also proved by the oath and examination of S. T. Bennett that W. H. Walker, another subscribing witness thereto, is also dead, and it is also proved by the oath and examination of S. T. Bennett that C. Ed. Taylor is also dead. And it is further proved by the oath and examination of the said S. T. Bennett that he is well acquainted with the hand writing of the said Susie Mae Livingston, having often seen her write, and that the name of the said Susie Mae Livingston, subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the genuine handwriting of the said Susie Mae Livingston; and it is also proved by the oath and examination of the said S. T. Bennett that she is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said W. H. Walker, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said W. H. Walker, subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the genuine handwriting of the said W. H. Walker; and it is also proved by the oath and examination of the said S. T. Bennett that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said C. Ed. Taylor, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said C. Ed. Taylor, subscribed as a witness to the said will, is in the genuine handwriting of the said C. Ed. Taylor, and it is further proved by the oath and examination of S. T. Bennett, that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said George H. Marlow, testator therein named, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said George H. Marlow subscribed to the said will, is in the genuine handwriting of the said George H. Marlow.

S. T. Bennett

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 11 day of March, 1946.

B. J. Holden
Asst. Clerk Superior Court

And thereupon it is ordered and adjudged by the court that the said paperwriting and every part thereof is the last will and testament of George H. Marlow, deceased, and it is ordered that the same, with the foregoing examination and this certificate, be recorded and filed.

I, Clare Nash Galloway, of the aforesaid county and state, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

FIRST: My executor hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent Christian burial, suitable to the wishes of relatives and my station in life, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first monies which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

SECOND: I give and bequeath to my beloved and faithful mother, Mrs. Bettie K. Nash, the sum of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, to keep, invest, spend or in any way enjoy as she may desire, in whole or in part, but with the provisions that in the event that any part of said sum shall remain unspent at the time of her demise, then in that event said remaining amount shall revert to, and be equally divided between, my daughter Betsy Jane and my son George Robert, subject, however, to the same terms and conditions hereinafter set out with respect to other bequest and devises to them made.

THIRD: I give and bequeath to little friend and employee, Loris English, the sum of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, as a small token of my regard and appreciation of her co-operative and loyal service.

FOURTH: I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter Betsy
