It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper-writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of HARRY L. DOSHER deceased, and the same, with the foregoing examination and this certificate, are ordered to be recorded and filed.

This 10th day of May, 1944.

S. T. BENNETT

Clerk Superior Court

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

COUNTY OF BRUNSWICK

I, George T. Rourk, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my Last Will and Testament.

1. My executor hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my relatives, and pay all my funeral expenses and my just debts out of the first moneys that shall come into his hands belonging to my estate.
2. I give and devise unto my nephew, L. C. Rourk, and his wife, Mittie Hazel Rourk, and their heirs, in fee simple; all the real estate owned by me in Brunswick County, North Carolina, of which I may be seized at the time of my death.
3. I give and bequeath unto my said nephew, L. C. Rourk, and his wife, Mittie Hazel Rourk, all personal property of which I may be seized at the time of my death.
4. The foregoing dispositions are made in recognition of the interest taken in and shown me and my late sister, Mary Rourk, by my said nephew, L. C. Rourk and his wife, Mittie Hazel Rourk, in coming to us and making their home with us to comfort and assist.
5. I hereby constitute and appoint my nephew, L. C. Rourk, my lawful executor, to all intents and purposes to execute this my Last Will and Testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me made.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, the said George T. Rourk, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 11th day of March, 1944.

George T. Rourk

(SEAL)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said George T. Rourk to be his Last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

In The Superior Court, Before The Clerk.

A paper-writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of George T. Rourk, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by L. C. Rourk the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said George T. Rourk is proved by the oath and examination of Prince O'Brien, Rachel T. Corlette and C. Ed Taylor, the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn do depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him purporting to be the last Will and Testament of George T. Rourk; that the said George T. Rourk, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 11th day of March, 1944.

And the Deponent Further Saith, That the said George T. Rourk the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and his deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said George T. Rourk was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; And further these deponents say not.
