Last will and testament of George W. Swain of Brunswick County North Carolina.

No. 249

I George W. Swain do make and ordain this to be my last Will, that is to say:

First - B. Franklin Swain, my son, is appointed Executor to this Will

Second - I devise all my real estate and bequeath all my personal property to my wife if she shall survive me - this devise and bequest to be to her for her life only, and at her death my property to go as hereinafter provided

Third - Let my personal property be distributed just as it would be if I had died intestate save that the household and kitchen furniture shall go to my daughters, Jessie and Rebecca

Fourth - I devise to my daughters Jessie and Rebecca the following tract of land: my homestead containing about 400 acres bounded on the North by the lands of Columbus G. Swain, on the West by lands of D. F. Swain and David Smith on the South by lands of David Smith and by the public road leading from Southport to Georgetown, and on the East by lands belonging to the estate of Samuel Robinson deceased - two thirds in value to Jessie and one third in value to Rebecca - of the two thirds hereby devised to Jessie, she is to have one third for the uses and purposes set forth in a letter written to her, which letter will contain a reference to this Will - provided the party who will hold such letter shall procure it to her demanding enforcement of the trust declared in such letter. Until the prosecution and demand all the lands hereby given to her shall be her property in her own right discharged of any trust or other incumbrance. Done this 15th day of May 1887

G. W. Swain

George W. Swain the maker of the foregoing will has duly signed this paper in our presence and at his request and in the presence of each other we witnesses hereunto attach our signatures in his presence

To Jessie Swain:

This letter is recited to be and is the letter mentioned in the will which I have this day executed and is written contemporaneously with the will. One third of the two thirds of the land given you by my will you are to convey to your brother John, or his heirs or assigns in fee whenever he or they shall produce this letter, and demand a conveyance. And you are to give him one third of the rents and incomes of all the land (that is one half of the two thirds given to you by the will) - until you convey to him on his demand.
Love this 15 day of May 1899.

G. W. Swain.

George W. Swain, the maker of the above paper signed the same in our presence and was in his presence, and in the presence of each other hereunto subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

Sam. S. Drew
E. J. Davis.
