STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA :

COUNTY OF BRUNSWICK :

I, NELLIE HARVELL, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do hereby make and declare this my last will and testament, to-wit:

FIRST: My Executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all of my funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys coming into her hands belonging to my Estate.

SECOND: After the payment of above funeral expenses, together with other just debts, I give and bequeath unto Mildred Harvell, and Burris Chinnis, in trust however and nevertheless, the real estate and personal property formerly owned by my husband and referred to in his will dated July 15, 1925; also the tract of land consisting of fifteen acres more or less, belonging to me and to which I have held title over a period of years, for the following purposes:

My said Trustees shall manage and control said property and pay any net income to Mildred Harvell, to be made use of by her in any way she may desire. My said Trustees are further directed at such time as they may see fit to sell and give proper conveyance for the above mentioned property, the proceeds to be disposed of as follows:

The proceeds from sale of property as referred to in the will of Thomas Harvell dated July 15, 1925, shall be deposited in The Wilmington Savings and Trust Company and be divided by The Wilmington Savings and Trust Company as follows:

Two-twentieths to Mildred Harvell, plus $100.00 on account of Funeral expenses of Thomas Harvell.

Two-twentieths to my daughter-in-law, Carrie, wife of my son Charlie, who has been a loyal and faithful daughter to me.

One-twentieth to Ruby Harvell, said funds to be handled and allotted by Mildred Harvell, during Ruby's minority.

Five-twentieths to my son Charlie.

Six-twentieths to my son Donald, this difference being made due to the fact that their father and I have spent much more on Charlie than we have on Donald, on different occasions and for different purposes.

The remaining four-twentieths to be divided among my children and/or grandchildren, as my Executor shall see fit.

The proceeds from the tract consisting of fifteen acres, more or less, which is owned by me but not referred to in the will of my husband, shall be paid to The Wilmington Savings and Trust Company; said Company shall disburse this amount for clothing and incidental expenses for Ruby Harvell at the Toccoa Orphanage. My said Trustees are authorized to make such disbursements at the request and under the direction of Mildred Harvell. In the event of the death of Ruby Harvell before all funds shall be disbursed, the said Wilmington Savings and Trust Company shall pay any remainder to Mildred Harvell.

All household effects, team, poultry and farm equipment, and stock, I give and bequeath unto Mildred Harvell.

I hereby constitute and appoint Mildred Harvell the Executrix of this my last Will and Testament.

Dated this 10th day of June, 1932.
