

No. 454.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
COUNTY OF BRUNSWICK.

I, Irine Weeks, widow of the late W. J. Weeks, of the aforesaid county and state, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First: My executor hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second: I give and devise to my son, Edward R. Weeks, all of my real and personal property of whatsoever nature, wherever situate in fee simple absolute.

Third: I hereby constitute and appoint my son, Edward R. Weeks, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In so devising my property I am not unmindful of the devoted love and affection of my daughters Carrie and Irine, but they understand that my son has labored faithfully in the discharge of my obligations upon the home, and that there is still encouragement confronting him, I know that he will deal fairly with his sisters, and I am leaving the property in him so that he may be free to handle it at seems best to him.
