

State of North Carolina, } We the Subscribing witnesses to the Brunswick County, } Non Culpative Will of Lewis Galloway Esq., do: to report and depose that we were at the dwelling house of the said Lewis Galloway on the sixth day of January in the year of Our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and twenty six, and the said Lewis Galloway, then laboring under a mortal malady & expecting to die, did especially require us the subscribers to bear witness to the Non Culpative Will then and there made, that is, that it was his will and desire that the property he left should be equally divided between his wife Elizabeth Galloway, and his children including the one with which she was then pregnant with the restriction that the property so far as regards the children should remain undivided until they became of age, and that even her part should remain in common with the rest, except at her death.
 Likewise that he desired that a chair & horse should remain and be considered as his wife's absolute property to be taken possession of immediately in addition to her child's part. Little wishing that he wished and appointed his brother Alfred Galloway his sole Executor to this his non Culpative Will causing upon Isaac Carson to bear witness to this request. January 10 - 1826.

I, James Flowers, of Brunswick County North Carolina, do make, ordain and declare this Instrument which is written with my own hand to be my last will and testament, revoking all others. In the first place I give unto my son John for ever a negro fellow Jerry, a woman Statira and a girl Jenny, also one feather bed & furniture, two cows & calves and the horse that he purchased from Thos. Hall. 2nd, the balance of my Negroes, with the plantation that I lived on, and the land on the opposite side the River, I leave for the use of my beloved wife Rebecca, and her eight children, viz: Susan, Elizabeth, Sarah, William, David, Julia, Rebecca, & Caroline. The Negroes to remain working on the plantation for the sole use of my wife & children, as above named, and no other; & so soon as one of my children marries or becomes of age then my negroes to be equally divided & the one so married or come of age to receive their part of them; then the balance to remain on the plantation as before & so on in like manner until they all become of age or marry, and so soon as they all become of age or marry, then the plantation and land on the opposite side of the River I give to my sons William and David forever. The money I leave in the Huntsville Bank I give to my wife and my six daughters, viz: Susan, Elizabeth, Sarah, Julia, Rebecca & Caroline, to be equally divided among them.
 This would prefer its being put out on interest for their use could it be done with safety. My stock of every description, viz: Horses, hogs, cattle, & sheep I leave for the use of the plantation, except what has been given away, & what I shall give away hereafter.
 I also give all my household & kitchen ^{furniture} with my plantation tools of every description for the use of the plantation; my corn & bacon I leave for the use of my family; and my paddling boat on the bridge that are made I leave to pay Mr. Anderson & Dr. M^r Rea which is the only debt I owe in this world. I give unto James Sunday my bay horse called Ulysses. My house to remain for the use of my family. In case any of my children (viz: Susan, Elizabeth, Sarah, William, David, Julia, Rebecca, & Caroline) should die before they are of age, then in that case their proportion of my property to be divided among those living. My share of the land in Brunswick on Hatcher River is 1250 acres of said land, to my son, John I give forever 400 acres of said land, the balance to be equally divided among the rest of my children lastly, I constitute and appoint my dearly beloved wife Rebecca, then my friends Alexander Anderson, & Richard Smith, Executors of this Will and Testament. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal with my young son John then eight hundred and twenty six.

Now my will is that in case my wife wishes it that my lands left for the use of my wife & children be sold and that my son John have one third part of my land in Tennessee instead of 450 acres, and in case my Executors sell the lands on Cape Fear then the remaining two thirds of the lands in Tennessee to go in the same manner that the Cape Fear land are divided in the foregoing part of this Will, and the money arising from the sale of said lands after providing my wife & children to Tennessee be laid out in Negroes for my wife & children except my son John, and the money due me in Nashville in Tennessee, also to be laid out in Negroes to be divided between all my daughters only. I also nominate, constitute & appoint my friends Samuel Hall and his son Robt. P. Hall, Executors in the room of Alexander Anderson & Richard Lloyd left in the foregoing part of this Will. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this 1st day of October, 1825, in presence of
