BE IT REMEMBERED that I, Clarence A. Wiswall of Reading in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of this life, do make and publish this, my Last Will and Testament hereby revoking all wills and codicils by me at any time heretofore made.

After the payment of my just debts and funeral expenses, I give, devise, and bequeath as follows:

FIRST: I give to my son, Thomas A. Wiswall of Falmouth, Massachusetts, all the rights, title, and interest which I have at the time of my decease in and to a plantation situated in the Northwest Township in Brunswick County in the State of North Carolina, to hold to him and his heirs and assigns forever/ I also give to the said Thomas A. Wiswall the oil portrait of myself as a boy.

SECOND: I give to my son, Augustus C. Wiswall of Wakefield, Massachusetts, my lot of land in Winterhaven, Florida, and also my half interest in another lot of land in Winterhaven which I own jointly with Charles Wilkins Estate.

THIRD: I give my Washingtonia Library and the bookcases in which it is kept to my said son, Augustus C. Wiswall, IN TRUST for his son, my grandson, James Boit Wiswall, to keep and preserve the same until the said James Boit Wiswall shall become thirty years of age and at that time to deliver said library to my said grandson, free of all trusts.

FOURTH: I give my stamp collection to the trustees under this, my Will, hereinafter named, to hold and preserve for my said grandson, James Boit Wiswall, until he shall become thirty years of age and at that time deliver said collection to my said grandson, free of all trusts. The Trustees may, however at their discretion, give into the possession of my said grandson my stamp collection when he has reached the age of twenty one years with the right to hold and keep same until he reaches the age of thirty years, when he shall then have the full title and right to dispose of same as he may see fit.

Fifth: (a) I give and bequeath to my granddaughter, Eleanor Boit Crafts, in appreciation of her loving care of an affection for me the sum of Five Thousand Dollars.

(b) I give and bequeath to my granddaughter, Dorothy W. Hurley, the sum of Two Thousand Dollars.

(c) I give to my other grandchildren, Jeanette W. O'Keefe, Elizabeth Bradford Wiswall, Harriet Boit Wiswall, James Boit Wiswall, and Nancy Ellen Pratt, the sum of Fifty Dollars each, as a token of remembrance.

(d) To my great grandchildren, Richard Hurley, Donald Hurley, and George A. O'Keefe, I give and bequeath the sum of Fifty Dollars each.

(e) To my brother, Harry Trowbridge Wiswall, and my sister, Eva Gertrude Wiswall, I give, devise, and bequeath the sum of Fifty Dollars each, provided they are living at the time of my decease.

Sixth: All the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, real, personal, and mixed, wheresoever, and howsoever the same may be situated, which I may own or may be interested in, and bequeath as follows:

(a) I direct that one half of same be transferred and conveyed, in equal shares, to my two sons, Thomas A. Wiswall and Augustus C. Wiswall. In the event of the death of either or both of my said sons before my own decease, I direct that his or their issue shall take the share of the deceased parent by right of representation.

(b) One quarter of the residue I give, devise, and bequeath to my daughter, Clare W. Crafts, but in the event of her death before my own decease, I give one half of said one quarter of the residue to her daughter, the said Eleanor Boit Crafts, and the other half of said quarter I give to my trustees, hereinafter named, who shall invest same and pay over the income to Jeanette W. O'Keefe, the other daughter of said Clare W. Crafts, during her lifetime, and on her death the principal of said trust with accumulations, if any, shall be paid outright to her children then living. If she shall then have no children, I direct that same shall be paid over to the said Eleanor Boit Crafts.

(c) The remaining one quarter of said residue, I give to my daughter, Marion E. Pratt, but if she shall die before my own decease, I direct that her issue shall take her share by right of representation.

Seventh: I earnestly request my children and descendants that they steadfastly decline to sign any bonds or obligations of any kind as surety for any other person or persons; that they refrain from anticipating their income in any respect; that they refuse to make any loans except on the basis of first-class, well known securities and that they invariably decline to invest in any untried or doubtful securities or property or enterprise or business. They should reject any representations or opinions of others if involved in any doubt. They will be approached frequently with suggestions for investment that are not entitled to be relied upon from a business standpoint.

Eighth: I nominate and appoint my said son, Thomas A. Wiswall, and Joseph P. Bell of Andover, Massachusetts, to be the executors and trustees of this, my Will, and request that both as executors and trustees they be exempt from giving surety or sureties upon their official bonds either as executors or trustees. In the event of the death, resignation, or inability of the said Joseph P. Bell to act as such executor or trustee, I direct that in his place shall be appointed a person who shall be named by my said son, Thomas A. Wiswall, and by one or both of my said daughters. I give to my executors and trustees or to any administrator with this will annexed the fullest possible power to sell and convey in fee simple or for any term of years or for any part of the real estate of which I may die seized and possessed, either at public auction or private sale, at such time or times, to such person or persons, and for such consideration as may seem to such executors, trustees, or administrator to be adequate or reasonable and no purchaser from any executor or trustee or administrator under this will shall be bound to see to the application of the purchase money. I further direct that all legal matters in connection with the probate of my will and the settlement of my estate shall be handled by the firm of Morse, Kenny & Bell, Attorneys at Law, now at 87 Milk Street, Boston, Massachusetts.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I hereunto set my hand and seal and in the presence of three witnesses, declare this to be my Last Will, this twenty fifth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty seven.

Clarence A. Wiswall

(SEAL)

On this twenty fifth day of May, A. D. 1937, Clarence A. Wiswall of Reading, Massachusetts, signed the foregoing instrument in our presence, declaring it to be his Last Will, and as witnesses thereof we three do now, at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, hereto subscribe our names.
