IN THE SUPERIOR COURT.

A paperwriting purporting to be the last will and testament of R.J. Barham, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by Luther Barham the Executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said R.J. Barham is proved by the oath and examination of M.L. Fowler and Martin L. Fowler Jr. the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say and each for himself deposes and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of R.J. Barham; that the said R.J. Barham in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown him as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 28th, day of July 1925.

And the deponent further saith, that the said R.J. Barham the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said R.J. Barham was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information and belief of this deponent, And further these deponents say not.
