In Supr. Court

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Daniel L. Butler deceased is exhibited before me, the undersigned Judge of Probate in and for said County by William S. Maylow and William P. Cox of the County of Columbus and State of North Carolina, the Executors therein named, and the due execution thereof by the said Daniel L. Butler by the oath and examination of John J. Hawes one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn says that he is a subscribing witness thereto to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Daniel L. Butler. That the said Daniel L. Butler in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date on 28th day of April 1886. And the deponent says that the said Daniel L. Butler, the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament and this deponent did therefore subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further says that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will and testament as aforesaid and at the time of the deponent subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto as aforesaid, the said Daniel L. Butler was of sound mind and memory - of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge information or belief of the deponent. And he further the deponent says not
