I John J. Wick Senior of the County and State aforesaid, being of sound mind and disposing memory but mindful of the uncertainty of my earthly life do make, ordain, declare and publish this my last Will and Testament:

First, I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Mary A. Wick my entire estate, both real and personal, wherever situated, to do with as she please.

Second: I nominate, constitute and appoint my said wife Mary A. Wick, Executrix of this my last Will and Testament.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this 11th day, of December, A.D. 1915.

J. J. Wick Sr.

Signed, sealed, declared and published by the said John J. Wick Senior, to be his last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who at his request, and in his presence and in the presence of each other do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

In the Superior Court.
A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John J. Wick Sr. deceased is exhibited before me the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by Mary A. Wick the executrix therein mentioned and the due execution thereof by the said John J. Wick Sr. by the oath and examination of L. A. Gallaway and C. W. Casley, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn do both depose and say and each for himself do swear and affirm that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John J. Wick Sr. the said John J. Wick Sr. in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing which is now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the 11th day of December, 1915.

And the Deponent further saith that the said John J. Wick Sr. the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare to said paper-writing or subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto. And at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid and at the time of the deponent's subscription his name as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid the said John J. Wick Sr. was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint or the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent, and further this deponent say not.
