B.J.Holden
CLERK OF SUPERIOR COURT

No. ⁴⁹⁸
~~500~~.

NORTH CAROLINA
BRUNSWICK COUNTY.

I, Davis Clemmons, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

I give and bequeath to my said beloved wife and daughter, Viva, the home including Sixty acres land; my right in the Bieley land, and an island lying in the river swamp, near the Brumbridge. Wife to have privilege to sell any, or all the above if necessary.

In witness whereof, I, the said Davis Clemmons, do hereunto set my hand and seal this 22 day of March, 1930.

Davis Clemmons (Seal)

Witness:

No. 500

Knowing that my life will soon be over here I do hereby declare this to be my last will. I bequeath to my wife Eliza McIlhenny all my property both real and personal to do with it as she may determine. I charge my children to be gentle & considerate with their Mother, who has been to me a faithful and loving wife, and to them a most anxious & tender Parent. Let no ill feeling arise between brothers & sisters but love one another.

John D. Bellamy

Witness my hand this 13th day of March 1891

State of North Carolina.

County of New Hanover.

Before the Clerk of the Superior Court.

A paper writing without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last will and testament of Dr. John D. Bellamy deceased, is exhibited in open Court for probate by Eliza McIlhenny Bellamy; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of the said Eliza McIl. Bellamy that the said will was found after the death of the said John D. Bellamy among the valuable papers and effects of the said John D. Bellamy, in a pocket-book wherein said papers were kept; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of Marden Bellamy W. J. H. Bellamy, John D. Bellamy and Robert R. Bellamy, four competent and credible witnesses, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said Dr. John D. Bellamy, having often seen him write and that the name of the said John D. Bellamy subscribed to the said will and the said will itself and every part thereof are in the handwriting of the said John D. Bellamy and that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said Dr. John D. Bellamy; It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said John D. Bellamy and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed, and at the same time Eliza McIlhenny Bellamy came into Court and duly qualified as Administratrix cum testamento annexo, according to law.

This the 21st day of September A. D. 1896.
