

I, Katherine Murchison, widow of Kenneth M. Murchison deceased, of Brunswick County in the State of North Carolina now temporarily residing in the City of Baltimore, in the State of Maryland, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, in the manner following that is to say:

(1) I give and bequeath unto my son Kenneth M. Murchison my Florentine oval mirror and table to match.

(2) I give and bequeath unto my daughter Marion Murchison Herkamp my large grandfather hall clock.

(3) I give and bequeath unto my daughter Jessie Murchison Carter my jeweled silver clock and candleabra to match.

(4) I give and bequeath unto each of my two grand children, Katherine Murchison Ellis and Frances Ellis, respectively (10) shares of the Capital Stock of The Murchison National Bank of Wilmington, North Carolina.

(5) I give and bequeath unto my grandson James Lawrence Sprunt the sum of one thousand ($1,000) dollars.

(6) I give and bequeath unto my sister Lizzie Sales, should she survive me, the sum of five hundred ($500) dollars.

(7) I give and bequeath unto my niece Kate Sales, should she survive me, the sum of five hundred ($500) dollars.

(8) I hereby direct and empower the executors of this my last Will and Testament, herein after named, from and immediately after my death, to divide in kind my farm, situated near the City of Fayetteville in the 71st District of Cumberland County in the State of North Carolina, upon which farm my brother Marshall Williams now resides, as now as may be practically done into two equal halves; and so that the dwelling house now thereon may be situated wholly on one of the said halves and the one of the said equal halves of my said farm with the dwelling house thereon, which shall be divided and set off from the other half of my said farm, by my said executors, by my said daughter Marion Murchison Hurkamp, until said child, if only one, or the youngest of said children, if more than one, shall have reached the age of twenty-one years, whereupon my said trustees or the survivors or survivor of them, shall pay over to said child, if only one, then living, or to said children, if more than one, then living, share and share alike, the corpus of said trust property together with all accrued income and rents, and thereupon the trust created by this my last Will and Testament shall cease and determine; but should my said daughter Marion Murchison Hurkamp depart this life, without leaving a child or children living at the time of her death; or should she die leaving a child or children living at the time of her death, and should said child, if only one, or all of said children, if more than one, die before reaching the age of twenty-one years; then in either of said events, from and immediately after the death of my said daughter Marion Murchison Hurkamp, should she die without leaving a child or children living at the time of her death; or from and immediately after the death of her last surviving child, dying before reaching the age of twenty-one years, my said trustees, or the survivors or survivor of them, shall divide and pay over the corpus of said trust property in equal shares, share and share alike among and to my own surviving children, provided however that if any of my said children shall have then departed this life, leaving a child or children then living, then and in that event the shares of my own deceased child or the share of my own deceased children, shall be paid over by my said trustees, or the survivors or survivor of them, to the child or children of My own deceased child or children the child or children of my own deceased child or children to take per stirpes and not per Capita, the share or shares its parents or their parents would have taken if then living, and these upon the Trust created by this my last Will and Testament shall cease and determine. And I hereby give unto, and confer upon my said Trustees, and the survivors and the survivor of them, all powers which may be necessary and proper, for executing, performing, and fully and completely carrying out in respect to the Trusts created by this my last Will and Testament, including the power to sell, transfer, assign and convey all or any part of said Trust property, what-soever it shall seem wise, to them, or to the survivors or survivor of them, so to do, without requiring the purchase, transferee, assignee, or grantee, to see to the application of the purchase money or consideration, and including the power to invest and reinvest said Trust property or any part thereof from time to time, in such manner as to them or to the survivors or survivor of them, shall seem wise; and my said Trustees, nor shall any of them, shall not be required to give bond for the faithful & performance of their duties as Trustees.

And I hereby constitute and appoint my son Kenneth M. Murchison, and my son-in-law, James Sprunt, and Shirley Carter and the survivors and survivor of them to be the executors of this my last Will and Testament, and I hereby revoke all other wills and codicils by me heretofore made; and it is my Will that my said executors shall not be required to give bond for the faithful performance of their duties as said executors.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 4th day of November in the year nineteen hundred and Eleven 1911.

Katherine Murchison (and)
Signed, Read, published, and declared, by the above named testatrix, as and for her last Will and Testament, in the presence of us, who, at her request, in her presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Katherine Murchison, widow deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Kenneth M. Murchison, James Sprunt & Shirley Carter the executors therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Katherine Murchison to the oath and examination of William E. Pyburn and Edward J. Wood the subscribing witnesses thereto: who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Katherine Murchison, widow that the said Katherine Murchison widow in the presence of this deponent subscribed her name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the fourth day of November 1911.
And the Depoent further saith, that the said Katherine Murchison, widow, the testatrix aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing to be subscribed by her, and exhibited to her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will and Testament as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Katherine Murchison was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; and further these deponents say not.

Last Will and Testament of Sarah E. Garrison.

Be it Remembered, That I, Sarah E. Garrison, of the City of Fernandina, County of Nassau and State of Florida, widow, being of sound mind and memory, have thought proper to make and hereby do make my last Will and Testament in manner following, that is to say:

1st. I give, devise and bequeath all my real and personal estate, what soever, unto my sister Carrie M. Davis, her heirs, Executors, Administrators and assigns, for her and their own use and benefit forever.

And I do hereby appoint my said Sister Carrie M. Davis Sole Executor of this, my last Will and Testament; hereby revoking all other wills made by me at any time heretofore.

In Witness Whereof, I, The said Sarah E. Garrison, have heretofore set my hand and seal, the 6th, day of February, A.D. 1907.

Mrs. Sarah E. Garrison (real)

The above instrument, consisting of one sheet, was, at the date thereof declared to us by Sarah E. Garrison, the testatrix therein mentioned, to be her last Will and Testament and she at the same time acknowledged to us, and each of us, that she had signed and sealed the same; and we, thereupon at her request, and in her presence, and in the presence of each other signed our names thereto as attesting witnesses:

Hinton J. Moses, Jr., residing at Fernandina, Florida.
Mrs. James Bell, residing at Fernandina, Florida.
H. J. Baker, residing at Fernandina, Florida.
State of Florida,
County of Nassau.

I, R. G. Capleton, Judge of the County Judge's Court, in and for the County of Nassau, State of Florida, hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the last Will and Testament of Sarah E. Garrison, as the same appears of record.
