Brunswick County.

I, Jane Newton of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament.

First:- My executrix, hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relations, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, and of the first moneys that may come into her hands belonging to my estate.

Second:- I give and devise to my second sister Mrs. M. Leonard and her heirs and assigns all property both real estate and personal property that I may own at my death.

Third:- I hereby constitute and appoint my trusty friend Mrs. Marion Leonard my lawful executrix to see into and execute the execution of this my last will and testament, according to the intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof - fully revoking and declaring void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I the said Jane Newton do hereunto set my hand and seal this 25 day of January 1918.

J. N. Newton. (Seal)
Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Jane Newton as her last will and testament in the presence of us, who at her request and in her presence do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.
