IN THE MATTER OF ()
THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF ()
M. C. ROBBINS, Deceased ()

A paperwriting, without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of M. C. Robbins, deceased, is for probate in open Court by W. M. Robbins, alleged to be the estate of said M. C. Robbins, it is thereupon proven by the oath and examination Lucy Margaret Lennon that the said will was found in the trunk of M. C. Robbins among the valuable effects of the said M. C. Robbins her death, and it therefore proven in open Court by the oath of three competent and credible witnesses, to-wit: Dora May Rich, Edward Mercer Cox and Fred Lesh, that they are acquainted with the hand writing of M. C. Robbins having often see her write and verily believes that the handwriting of M. C. Robbins subscribed to the said will, and the will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said M. C.

Robbins.

And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses that the handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said M. C. Robbins. IT IS THEREFORE CONSIDERED AND ADJUDGED by the Court that the said paper writing and every part and clause thereof is the Last Will and Testament of the said M. C. Robbins, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.
