

State of North Carolina,
Brunswick County.

I, Mary M. Johnson, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but, considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and Testament.

First: My executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial suit, able to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second: I give and devise to my beloved brother B. S. Holland, that part of my home tract of land on the West side of the lane between the part on which the lane is now located and upon which the lane has been and is now erected, consisting of 30 acres, more or less.

Third: I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved husband A. J. Johnson, all my real and personal property of every kind and wheresoever situated, for and during the period of his natural life.

Fourth: I give, devise and bequeath unto Clarence Moody Simmons and John Wm. Simmons, infant children of Lena Simmons, all the remainder of my estate, both real and personal, above and above aforesaid.

Fifth: I hereby constitute and appoint my husband A. J. Johnson, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and Testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same in every part and should he die, I hereby naming and declaring that all the above and Testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said Mary M. Johnson, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 19 day of Apr. 1920.

Mary M. Johnson (seal)

Signed, sealed and published and declared by the said Mary M. Johnson to be his last will and Testament, in the presence of us, who, at his request and in her presence (and in the presence of each other) do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

North Carolina } In the Superior Court
Brunswick County } Before the Clerk.
In the Matter of the Will of Mary M. Johnson, Deceased.

The paper writing hereto attached and purporting to be the last will and Testament of Mary M. Johnson, deceased, is exhibited before the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court of Brunswick County, North Carolina, by A. J. Johnson, the executor therein named, and thereupon the following proof thereof is taken by the oath and examination of H. O. Peterson and S. W. Edwards, the subscribing witnesses thereto, as follows:

North Carolina, Brunswick County.
H. O. Peterson and S. W. Edwards being duly sworn, depose and say, and each for himself deposes and says, that he is a subscribing witness to the said paper writing above shown him, purporting to be the last will and Testament of Mary M. Johnson, and that they saw the same (or had her attested the execution of) this writing as his last will and testament, and that affiant, attested it in the presence and at the request of said Mary M. Johnson, deceased; and that at the time of its execution (or at the time its execution was acknowledged) said Mary M. Johnson was, in affiant's opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory.
