

North Carolina
Brunswick County.

I, Mary Moore of the above said County and State; being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make public and declare this to be my last Will and Testament.

I give and devise to my son James Moore all my Real and Personal Property of any kind and wherever situated, subject however to the life time right of my husband Peter Moore.

It is my Will and desire that my son John Moore is to have a home in my house that I now reside in as long as he may desire it. I do hereby constitute and appoint my son James Moore as Executor of this my last Will & Testament.

In Witness Whereof I do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 20th day of June 1912.

Mary Moore (rel)
Signed, sealed, published and declared to be by the said Mary Moore my last Will and Testament in the presence of no who at her request and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

Oscar Galloway.

State of North Carolina } ss. In the Superior Court
Brunswick County.

A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mary Moore deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by James Moore, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Mary Moore by the oath and examination of Frank H. Gordon and Oscar Galloway, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and swear, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing and showing same, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mary Moore, that the said Mary Moore in the presence of this said Court subscribed her name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 20th day of June 1912.

And the deponent further saith, that the said Mary Moore the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper-writing to be her last Will and Testament, and the deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in presence of said testator. And the deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Mary Moore was then sound mind and memory, of full age, to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information of him, self of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.
