CLERK SUPERIOR COURT.

No. 502.

I, Mary W. Bellamy of the City of Wilmington, North Carolina, do, make public and declare this my last Will and testament in manner and form following that is to say:

The provisions and terms of this instrument, while expressing my own fixed wishes, desires and intentions are also generally in accord with the views of my late beloved husband, as expressed by him to me.

I direct my Executrix hereinafter named to sell as early as possible after my death, at either private or public sale, as to her may seem best, and upon such terms as she may think advantageous, my plantation and lands in Brunswick County, North Carolina, generally known as "Mulberry", and to execute proper deeds therefor, and after deducting all the costs and expenses of said sale, to distribute the net proceeds thereof as follows; one sixth of said amount to each of my following children, Russell, John D., Olivia G., William J., and Mary B. and the remaining one eighth to my daughter Olivia G. in trust that she invest the same, and use the income thereof, or as much as may be necessary, from time to time, for the maintenance and support of my daughter Alice M. for and during the term of her natural life; and any surplus income received by her to be held in a separate fund, to be disposed of by her as hereinafter mentioned; and upon the death of the said Alice M. to pay over the principal of said fund, or distribute the investments representing the same, unto my children, Russell, John D., Olivia G., William J. and Mary B. and their heirs and personal representatives in equal proportion per stirpes and per capita.

I give and devise unto my said daughter Olivia G. Bellamy those two certain buildings, lots and premises, situate in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, and designated as number 1830 Columbia Road and 2806 27th Street, in trust that she shall take the same into her possession and rent the same, and apply the same income therefrom, or so much thereof as may be necessary, after the payment of taxes and all other charges and expenses, to the maintenance and support of my daughter Alice M. for and during the term of her natural life, and upon the death of the said Alice, I give and devise said property, or any other property purchased with the proceeds from the sale thereof freed from all trust, in fee simple to my daughter Olivia G. Bellamy, and I direct my said trustee to make, execute and deliver, upon the death of the said Alice M. all necessary deeds and other instruments, required to carry out this clause of my will, according to its true intent meaning. I hereby authorize and direct the said Olivia G. Bellamy Trustee, at any time during the life time of the said Alice M. whenever she shall deem it for the best interest of the said Alice M. to sell and dispose of said property in Washington D. C. to any person or persons, and upon such terms as to her shall seem best, - and to execute and deliver to the purchase or purchaser, a good and sufficient deed therefor, and the proceeds derived therefrom shall be invested by said Trustee in other property to be held upon the same trust as herein before expressed, and in furtherance thereof in the event either or both of said buildings in Washington D. C. should be damaged or destroyed by fire that the said Olivia G. Bellamy Trustee shall repair and rebuild the same and for such purpose is hereby authorized and directed to use any money received by her and should the same be insufficient, to use such part of the unexpended income received by her or to be received by her from said property or any property herein conveyed to her in trust to meet such insufficiency.

I hereby further direct Olivia G. Bellamy Trustee to accumulate keep and invest all the net income derived and received from the Washington D. C. property and investments herein devised and bequeathed to her as Trustee, in a separate account and any part or portion thereof not expended for the reasonable necessary support and maintenance of my said daughter Alice or otherwise provided, and remaining on hand at the time of the death of my daughter Alice, to be paid over in equal shares to the children of my daughter Mary Bellamy, if any be living at that time.

To my daughter Olivia G. Bellamy I give the house 121 South 2nd Street

I also give the 3d Street house 411 South 3rd Street also the old Russell property 308 North Front Street

I give to my daughter Mary Bellamy Chiswell all my interest in the old Industrial plant on Surry and Queen Streets, also interest in house 505 Church Street Jane Tew place. 7 houses on 3d. and Brunswick, 4 houses on 4th and Dawson, and also all that portion of the property and estate, and interest therein, situate in the counties of Brunswick and New Hanover which my late husband received or to which he was entitled, by the wills of his father or Mother, or by inheritance from either of them, all of which was devised and bequeathed to me by him.

I give to my son John D. house and (lot) next to it on Loves Alley, Lot on 12th Street Block 56 132 feet South of Worster 66 x 165 Ft. in size full lot marked off by stones. Also lot number 3 66 x 330 Block 14 on 12th Street bt. Meares and Marstella, also house on Swann Street (2) 33 x 156 Block 549

H. H. Russell

I Mary W. Bellamy of the City of Wilmington, do hereby make, publish and declare this as a codicil to my last Will and Testament, which bears date the 4th day of June 1912:

I do in all respects ratify and confirm my said last Will, except as the same may be herein modified and changed.

Whereas, my late husband W. J. H. Bellamy died leaving a holograph will, wherein and whereby, he bequeathed and devised to me all his property and estate, and,

Whereas, at the time of his death he owned or had an interest in two certain lots or tracts of land, situate in the City of Washington, D. C. and,

Whereas under the laws of the District of Columbia an holograph will is invalid and insufficient, and can not be admit to probate, and whereas all of my children with the exception of my son Russell have executed to me a quit claim deed for said property, in order thereby to carry out the will and intention of his late father, and whereas it was the wish of my late husband, when he acquired said property, that after my death the income from the same should be used for the maintenance and support of my daughter Alice, and, Whereas, by the refusal of my said son Russell to execute to me a quit claim deed for the same it is impossible for me to carry out the expressed wish of my late husband as well as my own desire with reference to said property. Now therefore if my said son Russell shall during my life time make, execute and deliver to me a deed in fee simple for his interest in all the said property, owned by his father or in which his father had an interest at the time of his death situate in the City of Washington D. C. or should my said son Russell upon his failure to execute said deed to me during my life time, make, execute and deliver within ninety days after my death a deed in fee simple for said property in Washington D. C. to my daughter Olivia G. to be held by her upon the same trust and subject to the same condition as is provided in my said last will and testament, with reference to said property, then or in either of said events, my said son Russell shall receive and be entitled to all property and estate devised and bequeathed to him in my said last will and testament: -

But should my said son Russell refuse and fail or neglect to make said quit claim deed to me during my lifetime, or to my daughter Olivia G. within ninety days from and after my death, then or in either said events I hereby revoke, cancel and declare null and void, all the provisions of every will and kind in my last Will and Testament, with reference to any devise or bequest to him, or the devise or bequest of any property to him, and in lieu thereof do bequeath unto him the sum of one dollar and in any such event I do devise and bequeath the property devised and bequeathed unto my said son Russell in my said Will and Testament unto my daughter Olivia G. to be held by her upon the trusts and in the same plight, as is provided in my last Will and Testament for the property situate in Washington D. C.

In Witness whereof I do hereunto set my hand and affix my seal at Wilmington N. C. this the 20th day of February A. D. 1913

I, Mary W. Bellamy, of the City of Wilmington N.C. do hereby make, publish and declare this, as a codicil to my Last Will and Testament which bears date June 4th 1912.

I hereby give and devise unto my children John D. Mary Bellamy Chiswell, William / in fee J. and Olivia G. Bellamy interest for my daughter Alice all my interest, whether divided or undivided, in and to that tract or parcel of land situate in Brunswick County, North Carolina, and known as "Groveley", it being also known as the Bellamy Plantation, and is the same property formerly owned by my late husband's father or Mother, or one of them and being also a part of the property devised to me by my late husband.

The interest herein devised in trust for my daughter Alice, to be held by my daughter Olivia G. in trust in the same manner and plight as the other property devised for the benefit of my daughter Alice in my said last will.

This tract with other property is devised in my will aforesaid to my daughter Mary B. Chiswell, absolutely and I hereby modify my said will and revoke so much of the same as devises "Groveley" absolutely to my said daughter, and in all other respects ratify and confirm my said will.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

COUNTY OF NEW HANOVER.

In the matter of the probate of the last will and testament of Mary W. Bellamy

A paper writing, purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Mary Bellamy, deceased, is exhibited in open Court for probate by Olivia G. Bellamy, the Executrix therein named, and the execution thereof is duly proved by the oath and examination of Jno. D. Bellamy Jr. and Robert R. Bellamy, two of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who after being duly sworn do say and each for himself saith, that he is a subscribing witness to said paper writing so exhibited and that Mary W. Bellamy subscribed her name at the end of the same in his presence, which said paper writing bears date June 4th 1912; and further that the said Mary W. Bellamy did, at the time of so subscribing her name to said paper writing, and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name thereto as an attesting witness, declare said paper writing to be her Last Will and Testament and deponent did thereupon subscribe his name to said paper writing, as an attesting witness thereto, at the request of the said Mary W. Bellamy, and in her presence, and in the presence of each other and in the presence of F. H. Russell the other subscribing witness thereto; and further that at the time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to said paper writing, and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, the said Mary W. Bellamy was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information and belief of deponent.

At the same time is also exhibited a paper writing bearing date February 20th 1913, purporting to be a codicil to the last Will and Testament of the said Mary W. Bellamy, and the due execution thereof by the said Mary W. Bellamy is proved on the oath and examination of Jno. D. Bellamy Jr., one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who after being duly sworn, doth say that the paper writing so exhibited and shown him and purporting to be a codicil to the last will and testament of Mary W. Bellamy, deceased, is witnessed by him and the said paper writing, which bears date as aforesaid, was signed by the said Mary W. Bellamy in his presence and in the presence of Frank H. Russell, the other attesting witness thereto; and further that the said Mary W. Bellamy, at the time of so subscribing her name to said paper writing, and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name thereto, did declare the same to be a codicil to her last Will and Testament and the deponent and the other subscribing witness Frank H. Russell subscribed their names to said paper writing, as attesting witnesses thereto, at the request of the said Mary W. Bellamy, and in her presence and in the presence of each other; and further that at the time the said Mary W. Bellamy, so subscribed her name to said paper writing, and at the time of his subscribing his name thereto as an attesting witness, the said Mary W. Bellamy was of full age to execute a will, was of sound mind and memory, and was under no restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of deponent.

And personally appeared Robert R. Bellamy, who after being duly sworn, and shown said paper writing, bearing date February 20th 1913, and purporting to be a codicil to the last Will and testament of Mary W. Bellamy, deceased, doth depose and say that the said Mary W. Bellamy, the testatrix and Frank H. Russell one of the attesting witnesses to said paper writing are dead; that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said Mary W. Bellamy and Frank H. Russell, having often seen them write, and that the signatures of the said Mary W. Bellamy and Frank H. Russell, subscribed to said paper writing are in the true, proper and genuine handwriting of the said Mary W. Bellamy and Frank H. Russell, respectively:

And also appeared Marsden Bellamy, who being shown said paper writing, bearing date as aforesaid, February 20th 1913, and after being duly sworn, doth say that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of Frank H. Russell, whose name is subscribed to said paper writing, as an attesting witness thereto, having often seen him write, and that the name and signature of the said Frank H. Russell, so affixed to said instrument, is in the true, genuine and proper handwriting of the said Frank H. Russell.

And at the same time is also exhibited another paper writing, bearing date December 1st----, and purporting to be a codicil to the last Will and Testament of Mary W. Bellamy, deceased, and the due execution thereof by the said Mary W. Bellamy is proved by the oath and examination of Jno. D. Bellamy Jr., and Marsden Bellamy, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn depose and say and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to said paper writing, and that Mary W. Bellamy subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing in his presence, and at the time of so subscribing her name thereto, and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, declare said paper writing so subscribed by her to be a codicil to her last Will and Testament and deponent did thereupon, at the request of said testatrix, in the presence and in the presence of each other, subscribe his name at the end of said paper writing as an attesting witness thereto; and further that at the atrix signing her name as aforesaid, and at the time of deponent's signing his name as an attesting witness thereto the said Mary W. Bellamy was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will and was under no restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of deponent.

And, at the same time is produced in open Court, and offered for probate another paper writing, bearing date March 19th 1920 and purporting to be a codicil to the last Will and Testament of Mary W. Bellamy, deceased, and personally appeared in open Court Olivia G. Bellamy and Robert R. Bellamy, who after being duly sworn do say, and each for himself and himself do say, that said paper writing was found by them, after the death of the said Mary W. Bellamy in the safety deposit box of the said Mary W. Bellamy in the Peoples' Savings Bank, Wilmington, N. C., in which box were kept the valuable papers of the said Mary W. Bellamy and said paper was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said Mary W. Bellamy; that the said paper was contained in a sealed envelope marked on the outside in the handwriting of the said Mary W. Bellamy, "this is my last will and testament to be found among my valuable papers--Will of Mary W. Bellamy", and further that the said paper writing was attached to other paper writings all purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Mary W. Bellamy and codicils thereto.

And also appeared in open Court John D. Bellamy Jr., Robert R. Bellamy and Olivia G. Bellamy, who being shown said paper writing, and after being duly sworn say, and each for himself and herself saith, that he and she is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said Mary W. Bellamy, having often seen her write, and that the said paper writing and every part and clause thereof is in the true, genuine and proper handwriting of the said Mary W. Bellamy.

And at the same time is produced in open Court, and offered for probate, another paper writing, bearing date September 9th 1921, and purporting to be a codicil to the last will and testament of Mary W. Bellamy, deceased, and the due execution thereof by the said Mary W. Bellamy is proved by the oath and examination of Robert R. Bellamy and John D. Bellamy Jr., the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn doth depose and say and each for himself, depose and saith that he is a subscribing witness to said paper writing, shown him and purporting to be a codicil to the last will and testament of the said Mary W. Bellamy and that the said Mary W. Bellamy subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, in his presence; and further that at the time the said Mary W. Bellamy so subscribed her name thereto, she declared said paper writing to be a codicil her last will and testament, and deponent did thereupon subscribe his name to said paper writing as an attesting witness thereto, at the request and in the presence of said testatrix and in the presence of each other; and further that at the time the said testatrix subscribed her name to said paper writing and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name thereto as an attesting witness, the said Mary W. Bellamy was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of deponent.

Wherefore it is adjudged by the Court, that the said paper writing bearing date June 4th 1912, and the said paper writing bearing date February 20th 1913, and the said paper writing bearing date December 1st----, and the said paper writing bearing date March 19th 1920 and the said paper writing bearing date September 9th 1921, and every part and clause of said papers and each of them constitute and are the last will and testament of Mary W. Bellamy, deceased, and the same are ordered to be recorded and filed; and Olivia G. Bellamy, the Executrix therein named, appeared in open Court, and qualified as such by taking the oath prescribed by law, and duly entered upon the discharge of the duties of her said office.

CLERK SUPERIOR COURT.

Realizing the uncertainty of life I wish to leave the following directions: At my death I leave all I possess, (which is very little) Stocks Bonds & Loans now deposited in the following Banks, Peoples Bank; Wilmington Savings and Trust and Home Savings Bank; and my interest in Grovelly Plantation, together with my personal effects consisting of Bedding & a little Jewelry Flat Table Silver pieces of furniture, Real rugs and wearing apparel to my Sister Ellen D. Bellamy, should she survive me. But if I survive her the above must be equally divided (except my personal effects) between my Brothers John D. and Robert R. Bellamy - if they are still living - and my nieces Elize D. Verner and Ellen D. Taylor my above mentioned personal effects, to be divided between these two nieces by drawing straws or any way they may see fit. Before any division made however, enough money shall be deducted to have our names (Ellens and mine) put on the family monument at Oakdale Cemetery - The Paintings in the parlors must go to my nieces Elize D. Verner and Ellen D. Taylor as it was their mothers desire, they being their mothers work who insisted they should not be disturbed while we live. I will further add that mirrors in parlors, I wish my niece Eliza B. Williamson to have one, and my niece Louise B. Wood the other, together with the silk damask curtains in same two rooms, each of them one set, and all the other furniture to be divided among my other nieces, children of my brother Marsden and John D. Bellamy.

Eliza Bellamy

Feb. 18th 1926

I will further add as a Codicil, that our monthly income from my mother's estate consisting of $41.66 each must of course be kept up - the one surviving - receiving both allowances as will be necessary for her support, as my mother would desire. Will add also, the China, Glass Ware & to be divided between my Brother Marsden's and Brother John's daughters as equally as possible.

In the Superior Court.

A paper-writing, without subscribing witnesses, bearing date February 18, 1926, and a codicil attached thereto, bearing date November 19th, 1928, purporting to be the last will and testament of Eliza Bellamy, deceased, is exhibited in probate in open court; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of Ellen D. Bellamy and John D. Bellamy that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said Eliza Bellamy, after her death.

And it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to-wit, John D. Bellamy, Eliza B. Williamson and Eliza B. deRosset, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said Eliza Bellamy, having often seen her write, and verily believe that the name of the said Eliza Bellamy, subscribed to the said will and also to the said codicil, and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said Eliza Bellamy.

And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last-mentioned witnesses, that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said Eliza Bellamy.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the court that the said paper-writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of the said Eliza Bellamy, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

This the 21st day of January, 1929.

I, T. A. HENDERSON, Clerk of the Superior Court of the aforesaid State and County, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the Will and Codicil of Eliza Bellamy as the same is taken from and compared with the original on file in this office and copy of examination of witnesses to the handwriting of Eliza Bellamy and Order of Probate as the same is taken from and compared with the original recording in Book of Wills M, Page 129.

Witness my hand and seal of office, this 31st day of January,
A. D., 1939.

T. A. Henderson
CLERK SUPERIOR COURT.

No. 504.

December 27th 1907

I, Marsden Bellamy, of the City of Wilmington, North Carolina, do make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament: I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Harriet H. Bellamy, all my property and estate, real, personal and mixed, both legal and equitable, of every kind and nature whatsoever, and whosoever the same may be at the time of my death - To have and to hold the same unto her, my said wife, Harriet H. Bellamy, her heirs, executors, administrators and assigns -

I hereby nominate and appoint my wife, Harriet H. Bellamy, sole Executrix of this my last Will and Testament -

In witness whereof I do hereunto set my hand and seal this the 27th day of December 1907 -

Marsden Bellamy (SEAL)

State of North Carolina.

Superior Court.

New Hanover County.

Before the Clerk.

In the matter of the probate of the last Will and Testament of Marsden
Bellamy, deceased.

A paper writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Marsden Bellamy, deceased, and bearing date December 27th 1907, is this day exhibited before me in open Court by Harriet H. Bellamy, the Executrix therein named, and it is proven before me by the oath and examination of Marsden Bellamy Jr.,

and J. B. Bellamy Jr.
