Register.

I, Myron Waters, of the Borough of Warren, County of Warren, and State of Pennsylvania, do make and publish my last will and testament, as follows, to wit:

FIRST. I devise unto my beloved wife Charlotte L., for and during her natural life, the dwelling-house on Market street, in the Borough of Warren, where I now reside, the outbuildings adjoining, and the lot on which they stand. All taxes, assessments, and charges imposed on the real estate so devised to my wife for life, shall be paid by her during such period. And I empower my said wife to dispose of her life-interest in said property to my other heirs upon such terms as may be agreed upon.

SECOND. I also give and bequeath to my said wife, absolutely, all the furniture, household articles, books, statuary, and works of art which I may own at the time of my decease, and which are in, or appurtenant to, my present residence. Also two horses, a double carriage and single carriage and harness, and caw, to be selected by her from any I may have on hand at the time of my decease.

THIRD. I also give and bequeath, absolutely, to my said wife, the undivided one-fourth of my interest in the medicine known as "Piso's Cure for Consumption", and in the "Piso Company", manufacturing the same.

FOURTH. I also give and bequeath, absolutely, to my said wife, one hundred shares, of the par value of ten thousand dollars, of the capital stock of the Citizens National Bank of Warren, Pa.; and fifteen thousand dollars, to be selected by her out of any money, stocks, bonds, mortgages, judgments, or notes which may be a part of my personal estate, excepting the "Piso" interest, and Citizens National Bank stock, from which specific bequests to her have been herein made. And I declare that the foregoing devise and bequests to my wife are to be in lieu of dower.

FIFTH. I give and devise to my daughter Bell D. Parshall, all that piece or parcel of land, with the buildings thereon erected, situate on the north-west corner of Market and Third streets, in the Borough of Warren, Pa., being one hundred and eighteen feet and eight inches front on Market street, and one hundred and twenty-five feet in depth along Third street; the same being known as the Falconer property.

SIXTH. All the rest, residue, and remainder of all the property and real estate, real, personal, and mixed, of every description, of which I may die possessed, or entitled to, I give, devise, and bequeath to my executors, in trust for my daughters Josephine E. Mease and Bell D. Parshall, and their children, share and share alike, subject to the bequest to Marvin D. Waters hereinafter made, in manner following, to with: The net income, revenue, and profits from said estate to be equally divided between my aforesaid daughters and their children, share and share alike, for twenty years from the date of my decease; at the expiration of which period my said estate to vest absolutely in my said daughters and their children, share and share alike.

WITNES. I give and bequeath to my brother Marvin D. Waters, to be paid out of my residuary estate during the term of his natural life, the yearly sum of one hundred dollars quarterly.

REVOKED. I hereby revoke all former wills and codicils by me at any time made.

EXECUTE. I constitute and appoint my wife Charlotte L. my daughter Ella L. and my grandson Ludovici W. Dennison, executors of my will, with the understanding that they shall serve as such without any share or compensation.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the nineteenth day of February, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-five
