

No. 433.

State of North Carolina

County of Brunswick

In The Name Of God, Amen.

I, N. H. Hewett, of the County of Brunswick, in the State of North Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of this, my earthly existence, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament, in manner and form following, and none other, that is to say:-

Item, 1. I give, devise and bequeath unto my daughter, Eva S. Robinson one half of all the real estate and personal property which I may own at the time of my death, wheresoever situated, to have and to hold unto her the said Eva S. Robinson, her heirs and assigns, in fee-simple forever, except as herein otherwise provided.

Item, 2. I give, devise and bequeath unto my daughter, Eva S. Robinson one half of all the real estate and personal property which I may own at the time of my death, wheresoever situated, to have and to hold unto her the said Eva S. Robinson, her heirs and assigns, in fee-simple forever, except as herein otherwise provided.

Item, 3. I give, devise and bequeath unto my grandchildren, Fenevel J. Holden, Norman T. Holden, Healy Jane Holden and Dickie Kate Holden, minor children of my deceased daughter, Amelia A. Holden, one half of all the real estate and personal property which I may own at the time of my death, wheresoever the same may be situate, to be equally divided among them, share and share alike.

Item, 4. I give, devise and bequeath unto my said grandchildren, Fenevel J. Holden, Norman T. Holden, Healy Jane Holden and Dickie Kate Holden, children of my deceased daughter, Amelia A. Holden, herein before named in Item, 3. hereof, the proceeds of twelve promissory notes executed to me by Eva S. Robinson and Warren Robinson, her husband, secured by a first mortgage on real estate, dated February, 7th, 1928, said notes being in the sum of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars each, and one of said notes each year thereafter until all of same are fully paid, without interest. My executor hereinafter named shall pay to each of my said grandchildren his or her share of the proceeds of said notes as and when he or she becomes of the age of twenty one years, and if any of my said grandchildren should die before becoming twenty one years of age, then the proceeds of said notes shall be paid to such of my said grandchildren as survive, it being my will and desire that my said grandchildren shall share equally and ratably in the proceeds of the notes herein mentioned.

Item, 5. I hereby constitute and appoint my trusted friend, John A. Stanley, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning thereof and every part and clause of the same, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void and of no effect, all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In Witness Whereof, I, the said N. H. Hewett, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 10th day of February, 1928.

N. H. Hewett (seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said N.H. Hewett, to be his last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

2. D. Crandall
Register.

I, Myron Waters, of the Borough of Warren, County of Warren, and State of Pennsylvania, do make and publish my last will and testament, as follows, to wit:

FIRST. I devise unto my beloved wife Charlotte L., for and during her natural life, the dwelling-house on Market street, in the Borough of Warren, where I now reside, the outbuildings adjoining, and the lot on which they stand. All taxes, assessments, and charges imposed on the real estate so devised to my wife for life, shall be paid by her during such period. And I empower my said wife to dispose of her life-interest in said property to my other heirs upon such terms as may be agreed upon.

SECOND. I also give and bequeath to my said wife, absolutely, all the furniture, household articles, books, statuary, and works of art which I may own at the time of my decease, and which are in, or appurtenant to, my present residence. Also two horses, a double carriage and single carriage and harness, and cow, to be selected by her from any I may have on hand at the time of my decease.

THIRD. I also give and bequeath, absolutely, to my said wife, the undivided one-fourth of my interest in the medicine known as "Piso's Cure for Consumption", and in the "Piso Company", manufacturing the same.

FOURTH. I also give and bequeath, absolutely, to my said wife, one hundred shares, of the par value of ten thousand dollars, of the capital stock of the Citizens National Bank of Warren, Pa.; and fifteen thousand dollars, to be selected by her out of any money, stocks, bonds, mortgages, judgments, or notes which may be a part of my personal estate, excepting the "Piso" interest, and Citizens National Bank stock, from which specific bequests to her have been herein made. And I declare that the foregoing devise and bequests to my wife are to be in lieu of dower.

FIFTH. I give and devise to my daughter Bell D. Parshall, all that piece or parcel of land, with the buildings thereon erected, situate on the north-west corner of Market and Third streets, in the Borough of Warren, Pa., being one hundred and eighteen feet and eight inches front on Market street, and one hundred and twenty-five feet in depth along Third street; the same being known as the Falconer property.

SIXTH. All the rest, residue, and remainder of all the property and real estate, real, personal, and mixed, of every description, of which I may die possessed, or entitled to, I give, devise, and bequeath to my executors, in trust for my daughters Josephine E. Mease and Bell D. Parshall, and their children, share and share alike, subject to the bequest to Marvin D. Waters hereinafter made. In manner following, to
