Brunswick County.

I, Peggy Witham, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First. My executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to my station in life, and pay all funeral expenses, together with my just and lawful debts, out of first moneys which may come into her hands belonging to my estate.

Second. I give and devise to my beloved daughter Eliza Davis, the tract of land on which I now live, being the same that was conveyed to me by Benjamin Gallows and recorded in Book II page 23 etc. recorded of Brunswick County; described and defined as follows, viz., a tract or parcel of land adjoining the colored church lot, beginning on the northwestern corner of said colored church lot, running North 165 feet with Lord Street, thence West 33 feet, thence South 165 feet to the line of the church lot, thence East with the line of lot (church lot) 33 feet to the beginning.

Third. I give and bequeath unto my said daughter, Eliza Davis all my personal property of whatever kind and nature and wheresoever found for her sole and separate use and benefit and to do with as she may desire.

Fourth. I hereby constitute and appoint my said daughter, Eliza Davis my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and clause thereof - hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made. In witness whereof,

I, the said Peggy Northam, do hereby certify by hand and Seal this, the 8th. Day of August, A.D. 1905.

Peggy Northam signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Peggy Northam to be her last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at her request and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Peggy Northam, deceased is exhibited upon me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Eliza Davis, the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Peggy Northam by the oath and examination of Robt. W. Davis & Lizzie Meyer, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who I being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and say that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Peggy Northam, that the said Peggy Northam in the presence of this deponent subscribed her name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 8th Day of Aug. 1905.

And the deponent further saith, that the said Peggy Northam the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing to be subscribed by her, and exhibited to be her last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe her name at the end of said will, as an attending witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing her name as an attending witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Peggy Northam was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say that

Robt. W. Davis
Lizzie Meyer.

Sincerely sworn and subscribed,
