H. P. Sumner
Judge of Probate

My last Will and Testament written this twenty-fourth day of June 1879.

of the Courts of my County, I submit the following to them and pray they may see that my wish is carried out. I wish and feeling it my duty and my pleasure, to provide for as far as it remains in my power those whom I love and have been instrumental in bringing here. I therefore feeling the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death hereby give and bequeath my Bee Plantation, situated on the west side of the Lake Tear Port in Worcester County, and known as Sharfield. Giving the same as I got from Mrs Marion Bates, to Eulene Williams as the youngest children Eddie & William, to have and to hold forever. I further bequeath to Eulene Williams, the rest of my property consisting of one (1) Lot & Building at ^{Fairmount Cemetery & for Mrs Sarah Haskins} ~~Amherst~~ during her life, after which it is to go to her two youngest children above mentioned Eddie & William. I further bequeath and give to Eulene Williams all my other property, goods and chattels, to have and to hold forever.
In witness whereof I hereby place my hand and seal this the above day mentioned. P. D.

State of North Carolina In Probate Court Macon County December 22 - 1883

The foregoing paper writing was exhibited before me this day as the last will and Testament of S. F. Peters deceased -

It being made to appear before and upon the oath and examination of John H. Strang Esq. that the said paper writing was found among the valuable papers of the deceased after his death, and the whole of the said paper writing enclosing the signature thereto. Having been found upon the oath and written examination of John H. Strang Esq. and Patrick Holmes Esq. and writing of the said Samuel F. Potter.

It is now therefore ordered and adjudged that the said paper writing and every part thereof is in the handwriting of Samuel F. Potter and is his last will and Testament.
Therefore let the said will and this my certificate be recorded -
