

In the name of God, Amen!
 I, Samuel Smith, of Brunswick County, State of North Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, but mindful of the uncertainty of life, do make, ordain, and publish this to be my last Will and Testament.

I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Lucy, during her natural life, if she remains a widow, all my real and personal property. My real estate consists of a house and $\frac{1}{4}$ lot situated on St. George Street, adjoining Peter Moore and others. My personal property consists of house-hold and kitchen furniture.

I should my said wife marry again, then the said real and personal property to go to Helen Daniels and Rose Lee in fee simple, share and share alike. I do hereby appoint and ordain my trusty friend Holford Ballaway as Executor of this my last Will and Testament.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal and publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, in the presence of the witnesses named below.

This 8th day of January, A.D. 1903.
 Samuel Smith

Signed, sealed & declared by the said Samuel Smith in the presence of us who in his presence, and the presence of each other and at his request have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.
 John W. Watham
 W. C. Howe

North Carolina, In the Superior Court of Brunswick County. Before the Clerk.
 In the matter of the Will of Samuel Smith, deceased.
 The above writing hereto attached and purporting to be the last will and testament of Samuel Smith, deceased, is exhibited before the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court of Brunswick County, North Carolina, by Henry Green, and thereupon the following proof thereof is taken by the oath and examination of John W. Watham and W. C. Howe, the subscribing witnesses thereto, as follows:

North Carolina, Brunswick County.
 John W. Watham and W. C. Howe, being duly sworn, depose and say, and each for himself deposes and says, that he is a subscribing witness to the said paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Samuel Smith, and that he saw him execute this writing as his last will and testament, and that affiant attested it in the presence, and at the request of said Samuel Smith, deceased; and that at the time of its execution (or at the time its execution was acknowledged) said Samuel Smith was, in affiant's opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory.

John W. Watham
 W. C. Howe

Severally subscribed and sworn to before me, this 29th day of Aug. 1903.

A. S. McKeithan
 Clerk Superior Court,
 Brunswick County.

And thereupon it is considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of Samuel Smith, deceased, and it is ordered that the same, with the foregoing examination and this certificate, be recorded and filed.

This 29th day of Aug. 1903.
