

In the Name of God, Amen! I, Martha Fink, of the State of North Carolina and County of Brunswick, widow, considering the uncertainty of this life, and being of sound mind and memory, thanks be to Almighty God for the same, do make, publish and ordain this my Last Will and Testament in manner and form, that is to say, First, I give and bequeath unto my dutiful & beloved son, Dennis Hawkins and his heirs forever, one negro wench, named with all her future issue and increase, and also all my stock of Wool cattle. My will and desire further is that a negro wench, Peggy and her two children be valued by three men chosen by Court. When this my will be proved and said wench and two children, Nan & Bess to be the property of my son Dennis Hawkins he pay the value thereof agreeable to my son Samuel Fink's Will only the following exception that is to be paid by my said son Dennis Hawkins or his Executors, as the legacies come of age, and including Elizabeth Cause, wife of Neddham Cause, one of the sharing equal with the rest; my will and desire is further that my right to a Wench Rutter and her issue be divided agreeable to my son, Samuel Fink's Will. I give and bequeath to my Grandson Master Hawkins and his heirs one feather bed and furniture; I give and bequeath to my grandson, Samuel Fink and his heirs one negro wench, named Ben with all her future issues and increase, and do appoint my son Dennis Hawkins and grand son Masters Hawkins & John Fink to be trustees for my said grandson, Samuel Fink, and to take the negro wench, Molly, into their care until my said grandson Samuel arrives to the age twenty one; I give and bequeath unto the children of my son Thomas Fink, dead and their heirs forever one negro wench named Abrah which is to be divided equally among them when my grand son John Fink arrives at the age twenty one years. And I do hereby authorize and appoint my son Dennis Hawkins and grand son Master Hawkins Executors to this my last Will and Testament. Ratifying & allowing this to be my last Will and Testament revoking and disannulling all other. In witness whereof I have written at my hand and seal this 20th of August One thousand seven hundred and ninety. and child Ben interlined between lines 34 & 35. issue between 19 & 20

In the name of God, Amen! I, Sarah Daniel, of Brunswick County and State of North Carolina, widow, being sound in body, but of a sound mind and memory, blessed be to God, therefore do this 11th day of November in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and Eighty Eight, and in the Thirtieth year of the Independence of the State, do make and publish this my Last Will and Testament in manner and form following; That is to say, I commend my soul unto the hands of Almighty God, who gave it me, and my body to the Earth from whence it came, in hopes of a joyful Resurrection through the merits of my Saviour, Jesus Christ, and as to what Worldly Estate wherewith it pleased God to bless me with, I dispose thereof as follows; First, I give unto my loving daughters in law, herein mentioned, Amelia Daniel and Ann Daniel, all my wearing clothes to be shared between them, share and share alike, Item, I give unto my loving son Stephen B. Daniel one shilling sterling. Item, my will is that my Estate, both real and personal, should equally be divided into three parts, Item, I give unto my loving son Robert Daniel the first part, to him and his heirs forever, I give unto my loving son, William Daniel, the second part to him and his heirs - Item, I give unto my loving son, Stephen B. Daniel's children the other third part and to their heirs. Item, I do nominate and appoint my said son Stephen Daniel to take this third part which I give unto his children unto his possession to be divided to his children at his discretion and when he pleaseth. Item, I do give full power and authority to my Executors, hereafter mentioned to sell or dispose of any part or parcel of my Estate, as as to come a true and equal division, whereunto I have made constitute and ordain my loving son Robert Daniel and Stephen Daniel to be my Executors to this my last Will & Testament, revoking and disannulling all wills or wills before me made, acknowledging this to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I the said Sarah Daniel have at my hand and seal the day upon above written
