A. J. McKeithan,

Clerk Superior Court Brunswick County.

And thereupon it is considered and adjudged the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of J. A. and S. E. Carroll, deceased, and it is ordered that the same be filed after the foregoing examination and this certificate, be read and filed.

This 13th day of December, 1919.

A. J. McKeithan,
Clerk Superior Court,
Brunswick County.

No. 357

State of North Carolina,
Brunswick County.

I, Mary C. Weeks, of the aforesaid county and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First: My executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a burial, suitable to the wishes of my relatives and friends, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second: I give and devise to my beloved son, Harry Weeks, my house and lot on Moore Street, same known as the Homestead.

Third: I give and devise to my daughter, Viola Weeks Guthrie, my son, W. J. Weeks, Julius Weeks and Robert Weeks, the balance of my real estate, in the City of Southport and wherever any may be, share and share alike.

Fourth: I give my bequest to my said daughter, Viola Weeks Guthrie, my son, W. J. Weeks, Julius Weeks and Robert Weeks, all my personal property of every kind and nature, in the said City of Southport, and wherever any may be, share and share alike.

Fifth: I hereby constitute and appoint my son, W. J. Weeks, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof, I hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made. In witness whereof, I the said Mary C. Weeks, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this 6th day of Sept., A. D., 1916.

Mary C. Weeks (seal)
Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Mary C. Weeks to be her last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at her request and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.
