A paper writing without subscribing witnesses purporting to be a codicil to the last will and testament of Telitha Gore Parker, deceased, is exhibited and probated in open court by R. I. Mintz, the executor named in the will; and it is there upon proved by the oath of examination of R. I. Mintz that the said codicil was found attached to the will and placed in the same envelope and was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said Telitha Gore Parker after her death. And it is further proved by the oath of examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to wit, W. R. Holmes, S. T. Russ, and H. L. Mintz, that they are acquaint- ed with the handwriting of the said Telitha Gore Parker, having often seen her write and verily believe that name of the said Telitha Gore Parker, subscribed to the said paper writing and attached to the Will itself and every part thereof is the handwriting of the said Telitha Gore Parker. And it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses that the said hand writing is generally known to the acquaintances of the said Telitha Gore Parker. It is therefore considered and adjudged by the court that the paperwriting and every part thereof is a codicil to the last will and testament of the said Telitha Gore Parker and the same is ordered to be filed and recorded together with the will.

This the 30th day of July, 1940.
