

In the name of God Amen.

I Thomas Garrison of the town of Southport county of Brunswick and State of North Carolina being sound in body and mind and disposing memory but feeling the uncertainty of earthly existence do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form as follows-

First. I desire my body provided with a decent Christian burial and my just and honest debts to be paid.

Second. I give devise to my beloved wife Elizabeth Garrison all my earthly possessions both real and personal property of every kind and nature whatever to her and her heirs in fee simple forever.

Third. I hereby appoint my said wife Elizabeth Garrison executrix of this my last will and testament truly recollecting all former conveyances in will by me made, the provisions of which are inconsistent with those contained here in.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this 13th day of November 1899.

Thomas Garrison [Seal]

Signed sealed published and declared by the said testator this 13th day of November 1899, as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto affixed our names as subscribing witnesses thereto.

Archy Mc. Guthrie
Joseph A. Bell.

State of North. Brunswick County. Superior Court. Before the Clerk.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Samuel R. Pries deceased is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Jacob J. Pries, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof and of the Codicil thereto attached by the said Samuel R. Pries is proved by the oath and affirmation of Harry Carlett one of the subscribing witnesses thereto being duly sworn and depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and bearing date the 30th May 1899 and also the Codicil thereto attached, bearing date the 30th May 1899.

And this deponent further saith that the said Samuel R. Pries, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name to the said last Will and Codicil, declare the said Will and Codicil to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did then and there subscribe his name at the end of said Will and Codicil as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator, and this deponent further saith, that at the said times when the said testator subscribed his name to the said Will and Codicil as aforesaid, and at the times of this deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Samuel R. Pries was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent and further this deponent says not.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 17th day of July 1899.
S. P. Sharp, C. C.

Harry Carlett.

North Carolina, Brunswick County. In the Superior Court. It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and the said Codicil are the last Will and Testament of the said Samuel R. Pries deceased.
