STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
COUNTY OF BRUNSWICK.

I, Thomas Gray Burris, of said state and county, being of sound mind and disposing memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament:

FIRST: - My executor hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my relatives, and pay all my funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate, and in the event of no funds on hand, to be paid by the devisee or the devisees of my real estate hereinafter designated.

SECOND: - I give and devise to my beloved wife all the real estate of which I may be seized at the time of my death for and during the period of her natural life.

THIRD: - I give and bequeath to my beloved wife all household goods and furniture, and all kitchen furniture and utensils, and all personal property whatsoever in the home and buildings at my home at the time of my death with full control, and the power to dispose of in any way or manner that she may deem proper.

FOURTH: Subject to the life estate of my said wife, I give and devise to my son Fred Burris and his heirs in fee-simple all my real estate whatever, wherever located. But in the event that my said son Fred Burris shall die before the death of my said wife, then in that event the estate hereby devised to said Fred Burris I devise and give to my children share and share alike, per stirpes, and any deceased child to be represented by his or her heir and shall take the share of any such deceased child.

FIFTH: I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved son, Fred Burris, my lawful executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament. Witness my hand and seal, this the 24 day of June 1919.
