This the 13 day of June, A.D., 1930.

A.T. McKeithan, C.S.C.

No. 421

NORTH CAROLINA

BRUNSWICK COUNTY

I, W.J. Weeks, of the County and State aforesaid, being of sound mind, and disposing memory, but mindful of the uncertainty of my earthly life, do make, ordain, declare and publish this my Last Will and Testament:

FIRST: I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Irene Weeks, my entire estate, both real and personal, wherever situate, to do with as she pleases.

SECOND: I nominate, constitute and appoint my said wife Irene Weeks, executrix of this my last Will and Testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this the 22nd day of December, A.D. 1915.

W.J. Weeks (Seal)

Signed, sealed, declared and published by the said W.J. Weeks to be his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us who at his request, and in his presence and in the presence of each other, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

C.W. Easley (Seal)

NORTH CAROLINA

BRUNSWICK COUNTY.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT--BEFORE THE CLERK.

In the Matter of the Will of W.J. Weeks, Deceased.

The paper-writing hereto attached and purporting to be the last will and testament of W.J. Weeks deceased, is exhibited before the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court of Brunswick County, North Carolina, by Irene Weeks, the executor therein named, and thereupon the following proof thereof is taken by the oath and examination of L.A. Galloway and C.W. Easley, the subscribing witnesses thereto, as follows:

NORTH CAROLINA, BRUNSWICK COUNTY.

L.A. Galloway and C.W. Easley being duly sworn, depose and say, and each for himself deposes and says, that he is a subscribing witness to the said paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of W.J. Weeks, and that he saw him execute this writing as his last will and testament, and that affiant attested it in the presence and at the request of said W.J. Weeks, deceased; and that at the time of its execution said W.J. Weeks was, in affiant's opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory.

L.A. Galloway
C.W. Easley

Severally subscribed and sworn to before me, this the 19 day of Aug., 1930.

A.T. McKeithan
Clerk Superior Court of Brunswick County.

And thereupon it is considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper-writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of W.J. Weeks, deceased, and it is ordered that the same, with the foregoing examination and this certificate, be recorded and filed.

This 19 day of August, 1930.

A.T. McKeithan
Clerk Superior Court of Brunswick County.

No. 422

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

COUNTY OF BRUNSWICK

I, Mary A. Milliken, of the town of Snailotte, County of Brunswick, and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, to-wit:

First: All my just debts, if any, and funeral expenses shall be fully paid.

Second: I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, to my beloved husband A.A. Milliken, to have and to hold to him, my said husband, during his natural lifetime, and shall then at his death be allotted as follows, to-wit:

My home and lot on which it is situated, also my tract or lot of six and one quarter acres, which I inherited under the will of my father J.H. Whited, deceased, except the Easter half of the front adjoining the Rockroad, of this last named lot, back to a small drain or branch, shall go to my son Horton F. Milliken; but the eastern half of said front lot just described, shall go to my grand-daughter Nellie Milliken; and my woods land, known as Deep Neck, containing about 488 acres, shall be equally divided between my daughters, Minnie G. Cheers, and Florence Chadwick.

Third: No assessments of any kind shall be levied or collected, in the division of this property.

Fourth: No beneficiary, under this will, except my husband A.A. Milliken, shall possess or enjoy any emolument of the said property, without the consent of my said husband.

Fifth: I nominate and appoint my said husband, A.A. Milliken, to be the executor of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills be me made.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 1st. day of November, 1924.

Mary A. Milliken (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared as and for her last will and testament by the above named testator in our presence, who have, at her request, and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, signed our names as witnesses thereto.
