

State of North Carolina, } In the Superior Court.
Brunswick.

A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of W.A. Moore deceased, is exhibited to me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Sallie R. Moore the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said W.A. Moore to the oath and examination of M.C. Guthrie & J.B. Ruark the subscribing witnesses thereto: Who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of W.A. Moore that the said W.A. Moore in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 25th day of Feb. 1913.

And the deponent further saith, that the said W.A. Moore the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said W.A. Moore was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge in formation or belief of this deponent: and further this deponent say not.

Servally sworn and subscribed, this 30th day of June 1914, before me.

R.D. Newton
Clerk Superior Court.

State of North Carolina
County of Brunswick.

Be it known that I, W.A. Moore, resident and citizen of the aforesaid State and County, being of sound mind and disposing memory, but knowing the uncertainties of my earthly existence, do make, publish and declare this my last Will and Testament in the manner following:

That is to say:
First: I order and direct that my executrix hereinafter named, shall pay all my just and legal debts out of the first money that may come into her hands from my estate.

Second: I give, devise and bequeath into my beloved wife Sallie R. Moore, her heirs and assigns all my estate both real and personal of whatever kind and nature and wherever situated.

Third: I hereby revoke all will made by me heretofore, and all such are declared void and of no effect and I now constitute and appoint my beloved wife Sallie R. Moore, my executrix to this, my last Will and Testament, to serve without bond, to execute the same and every interest thereof.

In witness whereof, I, the said W.A. Moore, do sign, seal, publish and declare this instrument to be my last Will and Testament.

This March 25th. 1913.

W.A. Moore. (Seal)

Then and there signed, sealed, published and declared by the said W.A. Moore, to be his last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper-writing, and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of W.A. Moore deceased. Let the said Will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This 30th day of June 1914.

No. 314

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
 City and County of Philadelphia, ss.

Lecture Testamentary

By the terms of these presents, I, David Martin, Register for the Probate of Wills and Granting Letters of Administration in and for the City and County of Philadelphia, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,

Do make known to all men, that on the fifteenth day of April A.D. 1913, at Philadelphia, to me, was presented and approved the last Will and Testament of Herbert L. Conrad deceased, (a true copy whereof is to these presents annexed), having, whilst he lived at the time of his death, diverse Goods, Chattels, Rights and Credits, within the said Commonwealth; by reason whereof the approbation and insinuation of said last Will and Testament, and the committing the administration of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, Rights and Credits which were of the said deceased; and also the auditing the accounts, calculations and reckonings of the said administration and absolute care of the same, to me are manifestly known to belong; and that administration of all and singular the Goods, Chattels, Rights and Credits of said deceased any way concerning his last Will and Testament, is committed to Fidelity Trust Company, Executor in the said Testament named; she having first been duly qualified will and truly to administer the Goods, Chattels, Rights and Credits of the deceased, and make a true and perfect inventory thereof and exhibit the same into the Register's Office of Philadelphia, on or before the 15th day of May next, and to render a just and true account, calculation and reckoning of the said administration, on or before the 15th day of April one thousand nine hundred and fourteen (1914) or when hereto legally required; and also to diligently and faithfully regard and well and truly comply with the provisions of the act relating to Collateral Inheritance.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of Office, at Philadelphia.
