No. 167

In the name of God, Amen! I, George McKenzie, of Brunswick County in the State of North Carolina, Gentleman, being of sound health, and of perfect mind, memory and understanding yet considering the uncertainty of this life, particularly after the sudden loss I have lately met with in my dear and affectionate wife, do make my Last Will and Testament in the following manner: - First, I desire that all my lands in the State of Georgia be sold and the proceeds thereof be applied to the payment of my debts, and if any thing should remain, the same to be laid out in young negroes for the benefit of my children. 2nd, I desire that the remainder of my negroes and stock of cattle be kept together on my plantation called Littleport to be worked to the best advantage for my family until my youngest son is of the age of twenty one years, during which time my will is that all my unmarried children should be maintained equally from the proceeds of my estate and my younger children who require schooling may also be provided with proper tutors at the expense of my said estate. I give to my George, those two negroes called and acres of land situated on the breast between my Main River canal and the main Road.

3rd Whenever any of my daughters get married my Will is that she or they should have a young negro woman whom she may choose, given to her as a waiting maid.
