In the name of God - Amen.

I, John D. Bellamy now in my 89th year of age, but through the mercy of Almighty God, having recovered from an illness which over took me on January 2nd 1942, but being of sound mind and memory, as much so, as I have been all my life, deem it my duty to make my last will and testament, disposing of what property and effects I own.

My father Dr. John D. Bellamy was a native of All Saints Parish, S. C., when he moved and settled in Wilmington about the year 1835, owning possessions in South Carolina and in New Hanover, Brunswick and Columbus Counties in North Carolina, and when the war of Secession or Civil War broke out was one of the wealthiest men in the State but when it ceased, his property having been seized and confiscated, when restored to his civil rights he had to sacrifice nearly all his personal estate to pay and discharge nearly two hundred thousand dollars of debts chiefly security money for his friends, after paying same in full, he transferred to my mother by deed all his property to be distributed equally among all his children -

So being admonished by his course, and desiring early in my married life, when I owed no man a penny I bought and gave to my wife Emma M. Bellamy every piece of real estate I acquired, and now and forever thereafter at least ninety percent of property acquired, is her property absolutely, and the deeds for the same are recorded in her name. Being still possessed of considerable property standing in my name, I hereby devise and bequeath all of the same whether real, personal or mixed, to my beloved wife Emma M. Bellamy to be hers absolutely and forever, with the exception of Grovely Plantation on Town Creek in Brunswick County, consisting of above 3000 acres with all live stock thereon, which I devise and bequeath to my son William M. Bellamy who has been my sole dependence, and has looked out kindly and faithfully for my welfare during my protracted illness. But it is strictly understood that the Estate given William is a life estate unless he leaves a male heir or heirs in which event he is to become vested of a fee simple Estate therein - But if he dies without leaving a male heir, then the property shall go in fee to my son Emmett, if he leaves a male heir, but if both William and Emmett shall die without leaving a male heir, then I devise the same to my three grandsons Hugh MacRae the 2nd, J. Leeds Barroll, Jr. and Lawrence, and to the last survivor of the three, when it shall vest in fee simple.

My purpose is as a matter of sentiment, to keep Grovely and its stock in the name of my male heir.

I specially request that my wife give out of my Estate Three Thousand Dollars, which is in addition to what I have given her, to my daughter Marguerite Bellamy MacRae, as I have given a home to each of my other children. In the division of the Estate, I request that my wife give the estate left to each of my children share and share alike.

I hereby make constitute and appoint my beloved wife Emma and my son William M. and the survivor, as Executors of this my last will and testament, with the request that they carry out in detail my intentions which they both well know.

This Saturday August 1st 1942

John D. Bellamy

The three sheets above are my will marked Page 1 - Page 2 and Page 3 - I deposit this will with my wife, for safe keeping.
