I, Wm. M. Bellamy being now of sound mind and memory and aware of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament. My affairs are so arranged that it should not need any administration but to avoid any uncertainty or misunderstanding that could through any unforeseen contingency arise make this written document in my own handwriting in order that my wife Anne T. S. Bellamy shall become seized and possessed of all my real and personal property that may be left at the time of my death, so I hereby give devise and bequeath all real and personal property of every kind and nature what so ever, stocks, bonds, money in bank or that may be on deposit in the Wilmington Savings and Trust Co. in my own individual name to my beloved wife Anne T. S. Bellamy, knowing that my every wish and verbal instructions will be carried out; and in order that she might not be hindered or delayed in coming into full and unquestioned possession of every thing I now own. All my family my sisters and brother are independent and have their own means and estate and in the event that I should hereafter come into possession of any interest in either my mothers or fathers estate I wish also that that interest either remote or prospective to vest solely in my said wife Annie T. S. Bellamy. I hereby constitute and appoint my wife Anne T. S. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my seal this the 4th day of October 1943.
