

No. 464

NORTH CAROLINA
BRUNSWICK COUNTY

I, MARY E. TEBOE, of the County of Brunswick and the State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, but realizing the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament.

FIRST: My Executor hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all my funeral expenses, together with my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

SECOND: I give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved husband, John B. Teboe, all my property, real, personal and mixed, of every kind and nature whatsoever, in fee simple.

THIRD: In the event that my beloved husband, John B. Teboe is not living at the time of my death, I give, devise and bequeath to Emma V. Mintz, my niece, all my personal property, to be hers absolutely, and if the said Emma V. Mintz shall not be living at the time of my death, then I give, devise and bequeath all of my personal property to my great nephew, Norman L. Mintz.

FOURTH: In the event that my beloved husband shall not be living at the time of my death, I give, devise and bequeath, in fee simple, unto my great nephew, Norman L. Mintz, all my real property wheresoever situate.

FIFTH: I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved husband, John B. Teboe, my lawful Executor, to all intents and purposes, to, without bond, execute this my last Will and Testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly null and void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

IN WITNESS WHEREFORE, I, the said Mary E. Teboe, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 17th day of August, 1934.

Mary E. Teboe (SEAL)

SIGNED, SEALED, PUBLISHED AND DECLARED by the said Mary E. Teboe, to be her last Will and Testament in the presence of each of us, who, at her request, and in her presence, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

ss. IN THE SUPERIOR COURT.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mary E. Teboe, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by John B. Teboe, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Mary E. Teboe by the oath and examination of Fred L. Mintz, Jr. and Geneva M. Mintz, the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn, each depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mary E. Teboe; that the said Mary E. Teboe, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 17th day of August, 1934.

AND THIS DEPONENT FURTHER SAITH, That the said Mary E. Teboe the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name and the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Mary E. Teboe was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 7th day of December, 1935, before me.

No. 466

State of North Carolina

County of Brunswick

In The Name Of God Amen

I, Sallie R. Moore of the County of Brunswick in the State of North Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and having full knowledge of what I own and possess, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, in manner and form following and none other, that is to say:-

Item, 1. My executor hereinafter named shall give my body and decent burial according and suitable to the wishes and desires of my friends and relatives and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts out of the first monies coming into their hands by virtue of their office belonging to my estate.

Item, 2. I give, and bequeath all of my personal property of whatsoever kind and nature and wheresoever situate to my children Inez Moore Alexander, Edna Moore Latham, James Moore, Eugene Moore, Wallace Moore, Joel L. Moore and Claude Moore, to be equally divided among them, share and share alike and in the event of the death of any of my said children prior to my death, then such share shall go to the heirs at law of such deceased child to be equally divided among said heirs at law of such deceased child, share and share alike, I have heretofore made gifts or advancements to my said children but I consider these matters concluded and complete so that no gift or advancement shall be charged against any of my said children and they shall not be required to account to each other for any gift or advancement heretofore made by me.

Item, 3. I give, devise and bequeath all of my real estate wheresoever situate, to my children as named in Item No. 2, hereof, whether within or without the State of North Carolina, to be equally divided among them, share and share alike, and in the event of the death of any of my said children prior to my death then such share shall go to the heirs at law of such deceased child to be equally divided among said heirs at law of such deceased child, share and share alike. In the event an equal division of my real estate cannot be made without injury to some of the shares as herein provided, then my executor hereinafter named are authorized and directed to sell the same either at public or private sale at such time or times and place or places as they may deem best, and execute proper conveyances therefor and the proceeds of such sale or sales shall be divided equally among my said children, share and share alike, and in the event of the death of any of my said children prior to my death then such share shall go to the heirs at law of such deceased child to be equally divided among such heirs at law of such deceased child, share and share alike, as provided for the division of my real estate in this item.

Item, 4. I hereby constitute and appoint my son, Joel Moore as my true and lawful executor, without bond, to execute this my last will and testament according to its true intent and meaning, and every part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly null and void any and other wills heretofore made by me.

In Witness Whereof, I, the said Sallie R. Moore, have hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 21st, day of February, 1936.

Sallie R. Moore (seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Sallie R. Moore to be her last will and testament in the presence of us, who at her request and in her presence and in the presence of each other do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.
